CLASS HISTORY

One morning early in September of 1947, sixty-six boys and girls made their debut into high school life. These "green freshmen" elected Kenneth Holtkamp their Class President, Charlie Davidson, Vice President and Pat Way, Secretary and Treasurer. The class sponsors were Mrs. Wilson and Mr. Harris. Alvin Welch and Pat Way entered the Hope Medal Contest, with Alvin winning first place. Pat Way was an attendant to "Miss Centralia" to bring a grand climax to our freshman year.

The next year we started back to school with sixty-seven under the name of "silly sophomores." We had lost Kenneth Holtkamp and Glen Mize, but gained Marjorie Boucher, Beverly Clark, and Joan Mullican. Our Class officers this year were Alvin Welch, President, C. F. Hulen, Vice President, Barbara Seymour, Secretary and Treasurer. Our sponsors were Mr. Whitman and Coach Prater. Marjorie Davenport entered the Hope Medal contest. The teachers selected Pat Way to make the Sophomore Pilgrimage to Jefferson City. When the doors closed the last day of school we were all looking forward to our next year.

Then in the fall we entered old C. H. S. now sixty-three "Jolly Juniors" and upperclassmen. Our sponsors were Coach Prater, Mrs. Remely, and Mrs. Owens. J. R. Monk served as President this year, with Frank Potts Vice President and Kenneth Harter, Secretary and Treasurer. This year we gained Gene Forsee, Bud Smith, and Kenneth Harrison, but lost Betty Harlow, Betty Jean Gibbins, Dick Merideth, Fay Mills, Lee Sheldon, Doris Tanner and Robert Wheeler. Julia Littrell won first place in the Hope Medal contest for us. Marjorie Davenport was selected to go to Girls' State while Kenneth Harter and Merle Wright went to Boys' State. This year the Seniors were our guests at the Prom which was a gala affair.

This year all fifty-five of us are "Sophisticated Seniors." Mr. Kerr and Mr. and Mrs. Bowen are our sponsors. We elected Shirly Ogle as President of our class, with Johnny Sims as Vice President, Barbara Seymour, Secretary and Treasurer. Diane Markwell was selected as a Cheer Leader for the pep squad. We gained Donna Wright and lost Claude Peck, Joan Mullican, Joyce Pulis, Rosebelle Barnes, Jo Ann Stevens, Bertha Williams, Jack Munford, Malcolm Davis and Eleanor Gibson.

For our homecoming Football game this year we had a parade with each class represented by a float. Of course the Senior class won the prize for the best float. The Homecoming Queen was Julia Littrell, with Diane Markwell, Beverly Clark, and Donna Wright as her attendants.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I waited at the Cicero Flying Saucer Field in Chicago for a flying saucer to take me to Hawaii, I heard a familiar giggle and glanced around to see Johnny Sims surrounded by a group of girls. I strolled over and learned that he and Frank Potts were the owners of the Cicero Flying Saucer Field. After conversing with them for a while I went to the coffee shop. I noticed a short, fat man. Who should it be but Virgil Powell. I started a conversation with him and found that he was chief engineer for the Acme Radio and Electronics Co. in New York City. He said several members of the 51 Class of C. H. S. worked there. Donna Wright is a secretary, Howard Chandler is head accountant, and Merle Wright is chief laboratory technician. Then I realized the hostess was Katherine Ball. She is married to Kenneth Harrison and has a nice family. Just as I was enjoying my coffee, a boy came through paging me. The boy was no other than Teddy Mortimer. He and Robert Grace both are working at the airfield. Anyway I was wanted on the telephone, and when I answered, the operator's voice sounded so familiar I had to ask her her name. I discovered she was Marjorie Boucher. We got so interested in talking about old times, we forgot all about the party on the other end of the line.

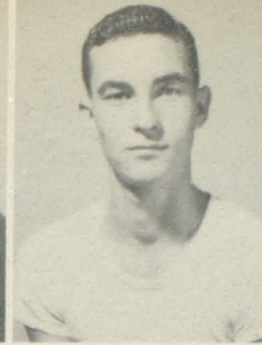

I hear over a loud speaker, "Saucer for Hawaii leaving from gate no. 10." So I departed from Chicago at exactly 2:02 P. M. Eastern Standard Time. The stewardess on the plane was Mary Ellen Vance. After getting inside, another stewardess came through taking tickets and making the passengers comfortable. She was Fay Willett. It was then I noticed who was sitting by me. It was Pat Way. We talked for a long while and I found out that she was on her way to a Doctors' Convention in San Francisco and that she was Chief of Staff at the Mayo Bros. Hospital. She also told me that Barbara Seymour was head nurse and was married to Don Hildebrand, a very successful farmer.

We had to land in a small town in Missouri for repairs, so while the saucer was being repaired, I hired a taxi to ride around and look the town over. While riding down one of the streets in the business section, I saw a group of men standing on a street corner talking to each other. One of them looked so familiar that I stopped to ask who he was. When I got out of the cab and got closer to them, I recognized all of them. They were members of the Class of 51. They were: Kenneth Harter, Shirly Ogle, Freddie Stidham, Harry Jones, and Bill Durk. We talked for a while about old times. They were all married and were living on farms in that community. They told me that Marjorie Davenport was the English teacher, Jullia Littrell was the Home Ec. teacher, and Betty Spauldin was the commerce teacher at the local High School, and that Sally Jesse was teaching in a rural school close by. We could have talked for hours but I had to catch my saucer and so I got in the taxi and left. After boarding the saucer and taking off I related information that I had secured to Dr. Way.

The next stop was in Phoenix. I decided to get off the saucer and get some exercise while it was being checked and refueled. I went over to talk to the mechanics, and much to my surprise, they were Buddy Smith, Ray Heckman, and C. F. Hulén. While we were talking they pointed out two pilots getting into a plane and getting ready to take off. They told me that the pilots were Eldon Adkins and Roy Guile. I went into the terminal. As I walked through the door, I saw a poster advertising a concert by the famed concert violinist Beverita Clark. I was walking around killing time when a woman bumped into me, I looked around and it was Diane Markwell Forsee. She was looking for her husband, Gene. She said that he was supposed to meet her at the terminal with their baggage and they were going to visit their grandchildren. She told me that Mae Davenport was married and had a family of six children, all boys. She saw her husband and had to go get on the plane.

I bought a newspaper before getting back on the saucer. After we took off I started reading it. I looked at the advertising section and saw an ad of WARDS CLOTHING STORE, Harold E. Ward (Prop.). Another ad was of a wrestling match between the famous wrestling twins, Wallace and Walter Young, and the Masked Marvels team at the Phoenix Arena. Turning to the sports section of the paper I saw pictures of Charles Davidson and Kenneth Carter and there was an article about M. U. Coach Davidson and K. U. Coach Carter who were class-mates in high school and in college. Each says that his team will beat the other's team at M. U. 's homecoming game. At San Francisco, the next and last stop before reaching Hawaii, Dr. Way and I parted company, but three familiar looking men got on. Finally, I recognized them. They were: Leonard May, J. R. Monk, and Alvin Welch. Each has 1/3 interest in a canning factory in San Francisco. They told me that Sam Davis, Ralph Kilbourn, Billy Joe Forsee, and Bill Wheeler are fruit growers and that they purchase fruit for canning. After arriving in Hawaii, we said goodbye and I went to my hotel room and sat down and thought how wonderful it would be if I could see all the members of the C. H. S. Class of 51 every day.

ACTIVITIES

FEATURES

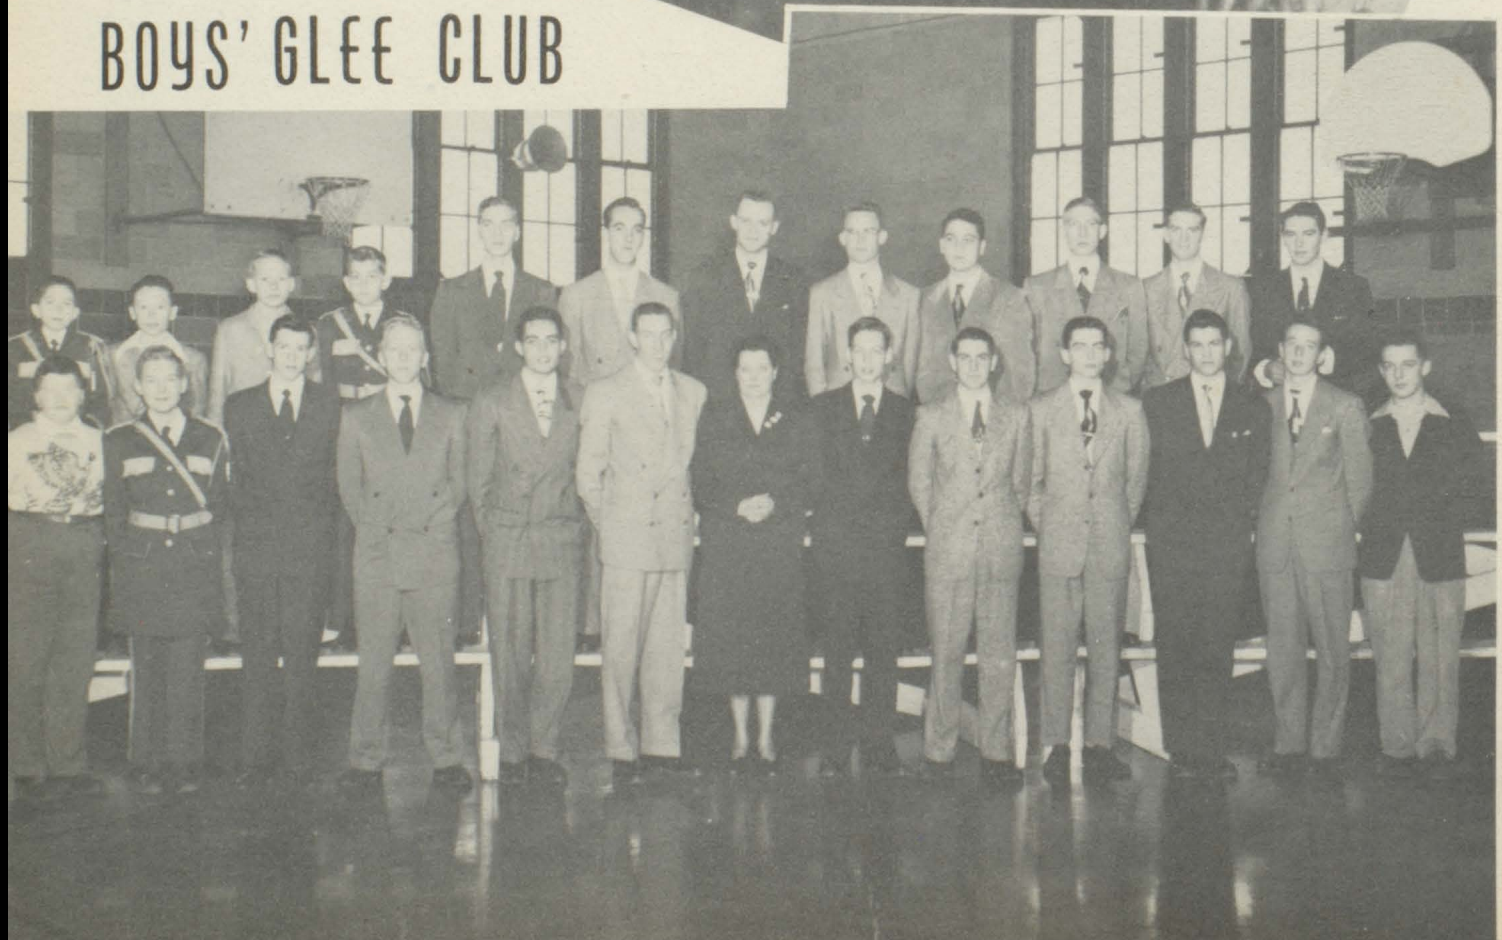

The vocal music department under the direction of Mrs. Frances Olson has accomplished much as far as music appreciation is concerned. An example of this was shown when last spring, the Girls' Sextet obtained a 1 Rating in the State Music Festival at Columbia. They were the only ones to hold that honor in this area.

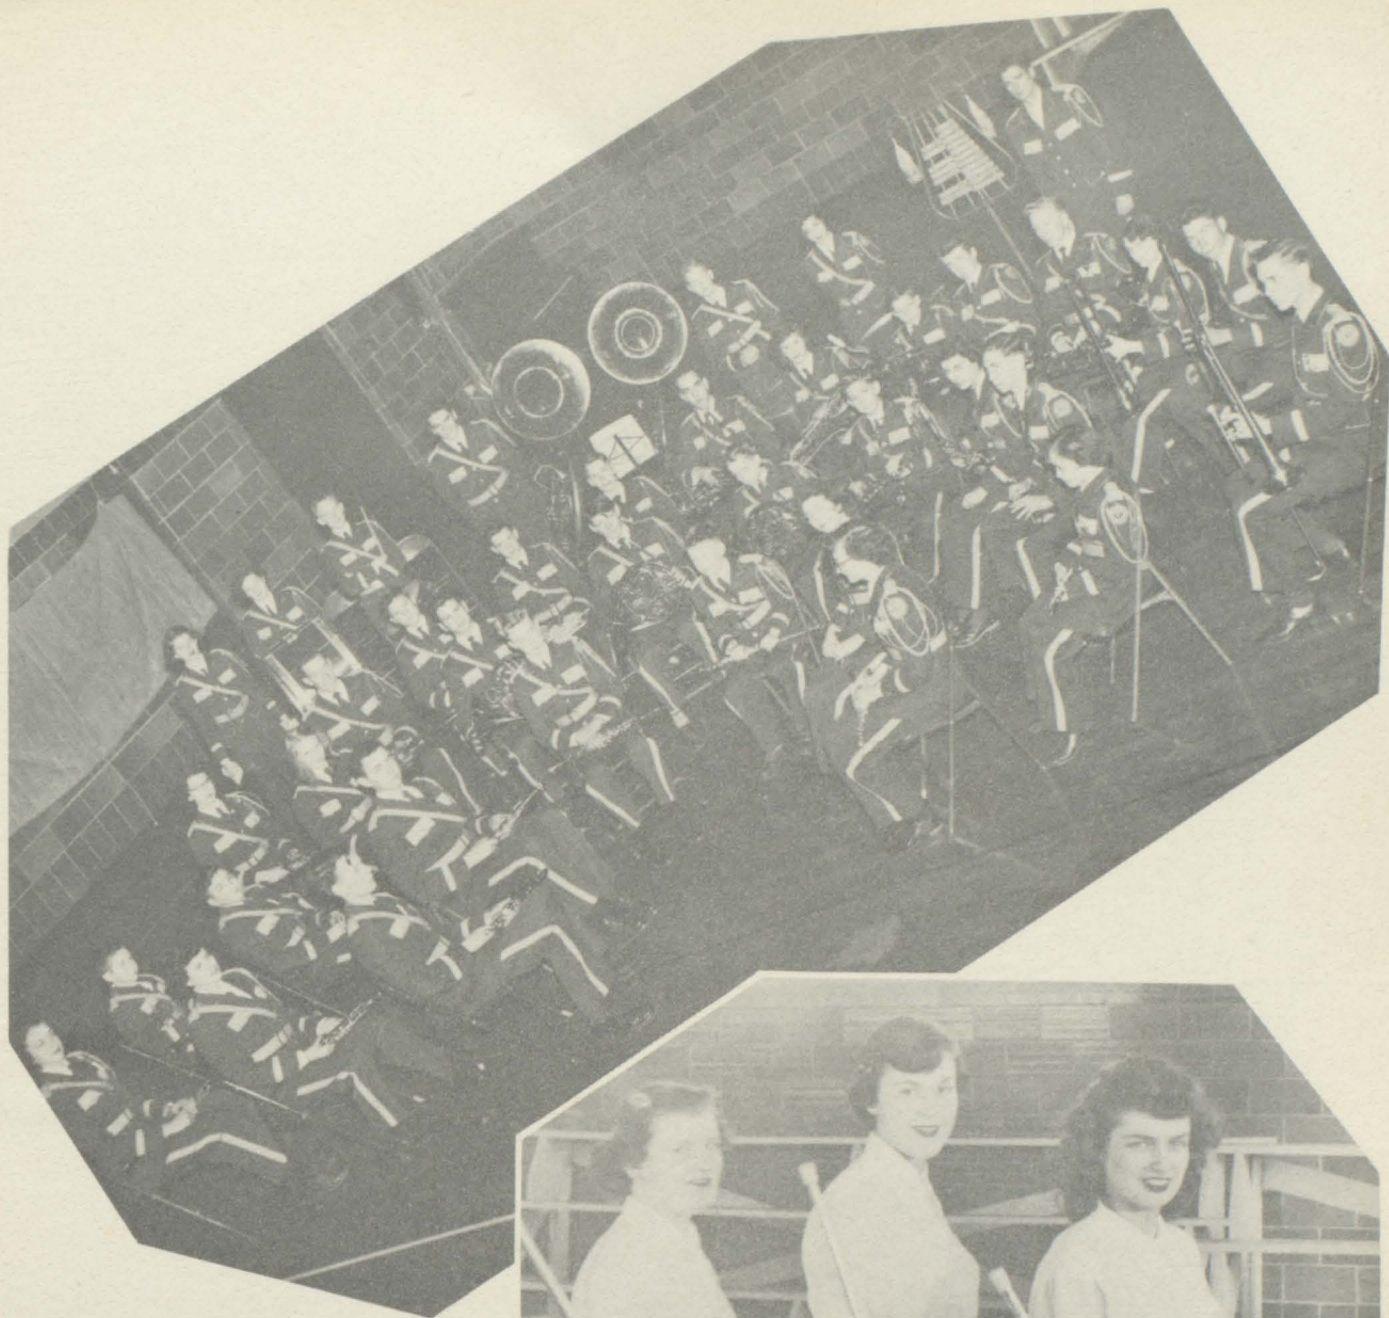

The boys and girls that have had Mrs. Olson this and years before appreciate her interest in developing musical talent.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The band directed by Mr. Emerson made its debut during the football season this year. The Jr. Band, The Senior Band and the Majorettes were a Welcome sight at our games.

PEP SQUAD

The Pep Squad under the leadership of Mrs. Bowen and Mrs. Doty were loyal supporters at all our football and basketball games and formed the core for our Pep Meetings.

At the carnival sponsored by the Pep Squad, Marta Raiser of Altenriet, Germany escorted by Jr. Palmer was queen. Her attendants were: Connie Baker escorted by David Mason, Dorothy Eaton escorted by Sonny Megown, and Barbara Seymour escorted by Kenneth Carter.

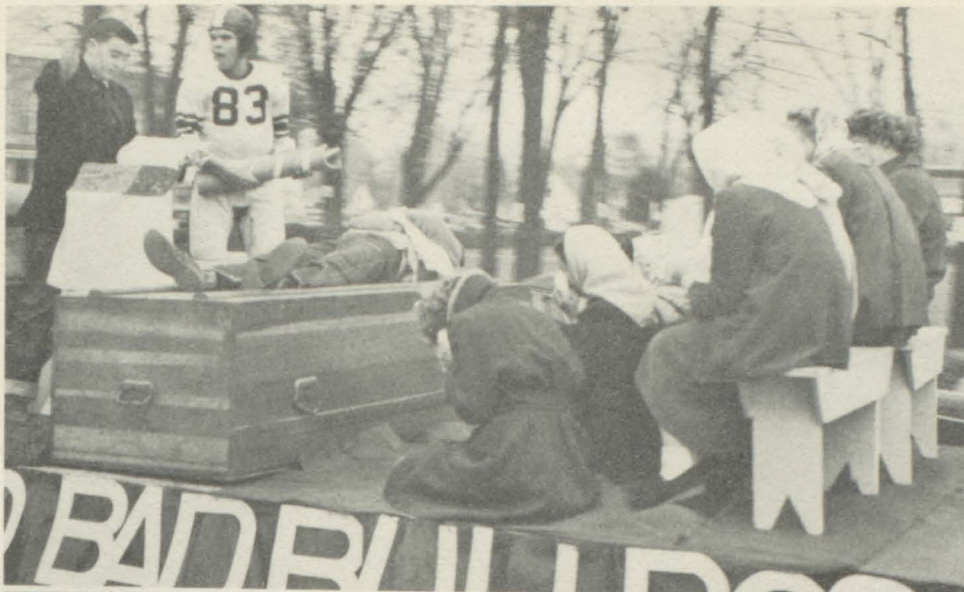

CARNIVAL

The Louisiana game was our homecoming game. The football squad picked the queen, who was crowned in the evening at the football game following the parade in the afternoon.

The Seniors float was judged first place; the shop boys' second, and the Sophomore class third.
