TO MRS. LEONARD HOUSTON. . .
In token of the tireless hours
And efforts spent by you,
As thanks for your encouragement
In what we try to do,
We the Seniors of this school
Hereby do dedicate
This Heliostat of Fifty-Nine
To one no less than great.

In memory of David Coureton, who was killed in a train accident while still a freshman in high school:

OUR FRIEND

He came to school early
That fateful year;
He, like all of us, had
Neither care nor fear.
He played our sport to
The best. He carried the
Football and tried his best.
Then, on that cold, dreary
Day four years ago,
He got his call and
Gave up his school and friends
For a hospital bed then death.

We understand why you
Had to go. We really miss
You tho! You have new Friends now in heaven, but
We miss you freshman friend,
Our David.

History

The year of 1955 found us boarding our lofty carpet that was headed for the land of dreams, the land of hope, and the land of achievement. That was our first year on the carpet and we were looking forward to it as being an exciting adventure, of which, we would never forget. To be our guide we chose Herbert Baker and his assistant was Donnie Decker. To take care of the matters of money and to keep the "log" straight we chose Orville Stone. Mary Lou Femmer boarded the carpet on our first stop. Midway along the trip we made a second stop; Tommy Raleigh left us and to take his place a new passenger came aboard, her name was Lou Jones. Allen Potts won first place in the Hope Medal Contest, thus giving us an honor to remember that first year. David Courteon was called by the hand of God. He will no longer ride the carpet with us but there will always be a place in our hearts for him. With our journey ended for that year, we stepped off the carpet knowing that bigger and more splendid things would be in store for us next year.

The year of 1956 found us boarding our carpet for the second time, to the land of "Sophomore." Our guides that year were Glenn Harrison and Marilyn Berry. Terry Mansfield was busy keeping the "log," while Ronnie Crigler made sure we had enough money for that trip. Terry took roll call and found that two students were missing, Ernest Turner and Orville Stone. Joanne Dettler boarded the carpet at the beginning of that trip and later, on our first stop, Judianne Bevard joined us. The honors came big that year. Judy Hough was Homecoming Attendant and with her charming personality was chosen "Miss Personality" in the Beauty Pageant. "Miss Poise" was won by another passenger, Ann Donnahue. Judy Martin with her very expressive eyes earned "Miss Eyes." And last but not least, Judy Bowman, the girl with the pretty blonde hair won "Miss Hair." Yes, our honors were really big that year. The Sophomore Pilgrimage was made by Judy Martin to end our second trip on the carpet of dreams. With only two more tours left, we were still anxiously awaiting the next year to come.

The land of "Junior" looked very inviting to us in the year of 1957, so that was our destination for our third year aboard the magic carpet. Our guides that year were Judy Martin, Ann Donnahue, Kay McDonald who took care of financial matters, and Judy Hough who kept the "log." Homecoming was a happy event for Judy Hough this year, who was selected Homecoming Queen. The Attendants to the Queen were Lou Jones and Sue Sims. Football honors were won by Jon Stone who made the All-State team. Judianne Bevard represented our class in the annual Hope Medal Contest and won first prize. We now stopped midway in our trip and took aboard the carpet two more passengers, Fran Held and Dean German. Soon after, the Beauty Pageant arrived and Judy Hough was named "Miss Smiles." The crowning point of that year was the Junior-Senior Prom entitled, "Stairway to the Stars." Thus we concluded our trip to that exciting land and anxiously looked forward to the next year as all juniors will do.

The year of 1958 found us boarding our magic carpet for the land of good times and enjoyment known as "Senior." For our last trip the crew to man the carpet was composed of Jon Stone, John Cottrill, Dean German who handled money matters, and Judy Hough again kept the "log." Joining us this year for their first trip were Darold Allen and Armond Fischer. And when we took roll call we found that Martha Micka, Karen Smith, Ruth Hartgrove, Mary Dudley, and Shirley Miles had left our magic carpet. Many of our passengers received distinctions in the land of "Senior" such as, Sue Sims who was selected Homecoming Queen and Judy Goe and Marcia McDonald, Homecoming Attendant. Jon Stone was chosen for the All-State and All-American football teams. Bill Chase also received honors on the second All-State team, Lou Jones took first place in the Hope Medal Contest and Jerry Dubes received a second place rating. Then came the annual Beauty Pageant where Judianne Bevard was given the title, "Miss Centralia." Others winning honors were Judy Martin, "Miss Personality"; Ann Donnahue, "Miss Smile"; and Wyvetta Ball, "Miss Poise." Also a highlight in the activities of this year was the senior play entitled, "The Skeleton Walks," which the entire class helped to present. Nearing the end of our journey the Junior-Senior Prom was held, the theme being, "Carousel." Bille Eaton and Herbert Baker were crowned King and Queen of the Prom.

The year of 1959 finds us leaving the magic carpet never to return again. We have had some good times in the lands of Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior. Times that will never be forgotten. They will live long in our memories constantly reminding us of the happy days we spent at C. H. S.

Your friends and classmates,
Joanne Dettler and Judianne Bevard
Class Historians

Senior Class Prophecy

While we were glancing through the May 19, 1969 copy of the Centralia Fireside Guard, we found that it contained so many items about our illustrious (and otherwise) classmates of '59, that we felt as though we were attending a reunion. The following are some headlines and stories about our former friends.

The Front Page contained many news-making events...Lt. Buddy Adkisson and 2nd Lt. Dean German are the first men to land on the moon, the 2 hour, 23 minute trip was made in the Atomic Auga G 5-466, which was designed and built by the famous atomic scientist, Homer Power, D. A. S.....J. Edgar Dubes of the F. B. I. singlehandedly breaks crime wave in Chicago; J. Edgar's comment, "I just kept my eyes and ears open.".....Miss Marilyn Berry sets new record in National Talk-a-Thon, talking for 69 hours, 17 minutes, and 3 seconds with only one drink of water.....Dr. Karen (Marshall) Zaring performs delicate 10-hour heart operation with complete success...The Honorable Glenn M. Harrison returns to his home town to campaign for re-election to the Senate; Centralia prepares to greet her distinguished son with great enthusiasm Taxi driver, Darold Allen and two firemen, Gerald Secrist and Armond Fischer, are heroes in West-end blaze as they broke through the barrier of flames and rescued the child of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Owings (Nee Janet Fulton).....Patrolman Pete Brown pleads not guilty of subterfuge with the Underworld.....Head Ford, Inc., Test.Driver Terry Mansfield, recently drove the new 1970 Ford on its trial run, circling the globe 3 times.....

Turning to the Society page we find these items...Mrs. Delores (Anderson) Jones entertained Saturday afternoon for Harry, Jr. who celebrated his 8th birthday; among those attending were Mrs. Virginia (McCubbin) Hinten and daughter, Mrs. Kathy (Atkinson) Roberts and sons, and Mrs. Mary Lou (Femmer) McCarty and son.....Mrs. Kay (McDonald) Gladney flew home this week end with her three daughters to visit while Mr. Gladney is attending the World-Wide Automatic-Electronic Convention in London.....Superintendent of Centralia Schools, Allen Potts, entertained with a dinner party Saturday for the following new faculty members: Football Coach Bob Miller and Mrs. Miller, the former Sue Sims, who will teach mathematics at C. H. S. and Miss Ruby Ellis who will teach commerce.....Mrs. Judy (Goe) Baker entertained at a reunion party for a few close friends; those present were Mrs. Ana Given, recently returned from Reno, Nevada, where she shed her 6th husband, Mrs. Brenda (Bise) Gordon, named the Secretary's Secretary for 1969 and Miss Frances Held, who just published a new bookkeeping textbook. Unable to attend were Mrs. Mary Lou (Jones) White, whose Corvette became wedged between the slats at the Drive-In while she was attempting to gain entrance and Miss Judianne Bevard whose dancing commitments prevented her attending. Mrs. White was to have read some of her original poems and sent them on to the party by Western Union's dependable messenger, J. R. Yager....Bill Chase, famous designer of "Nitie Nite" Lingerie just flew in from Paris, France, where he has been attending a Designer Original Convention....Mrs. Carolyn (Carr) Drew brought fame again to our fair city by winning the Mrs. Missouri contest and will leave for the finals in Florida the last of this month.

Taking a quick look at the Sports page, we see these headlines...Highpockets White (Gary Lee) has just signed a $50 Million Contract with the Boston Celtics.....Umpire John Cottrill is ill from the effects of a pop bottle he met...Jon Stone retires as coach of Notre Dame and is unanimously voted to Football's Hall of Fame.....Killer Kenny Cox wins split decision over Sleepy Howard Smoot at Madison Square Garden in one of the biggest title bouts of the decade.....

One item caught our eye in the Police Court News...Herbert Baker was arrested for going backward the wrong way on a one-way street and fined $10 and costs.

Even the Want Ads proved interesting...For Sale: Cheap, almost-like new English IV tests. Make own corrections for further reduction. Call David Drew.For Sale: One Motor Scooter; used very little by little old lady. See John Rexroat.

The Farm Page brought to our attention some of our classmates who have made worthy contributions.....Ronnie and Marcia (McDonald) Crigler prove that raising ostriches to supply makers of chorus costumes can be profitable.....Larry Beasley, expert on Worm-Hole Manufacturing, will speak to the Antique Dealers Monthly Meeting.....Edwin Hibbs and Eugene Harlow, famous partnership, have developed a new breed of cattle which is guaranteed to be resistant to everything that cattle are susceptible to.....

Our class has proved it can be successful in every field...Mrs. Carolyn (Beamer) Cox is predicted to make a large fortune as the inventor of a collapsible kitchenette which can be carried around in the pocket, slid under the bed, or otherwise put out of sight. This has been a fabulous hit with housewives all over America!Miss Ann Donnohue, Ann Lander's successor, has rapidly gained popularity in her Advice to the Lovelorn Column; her wide range of experience has been one factor in her success....Misses Donna Colvin and Shirley Kilbourn will open a Beauty Shop this week on Allen Street.... Beginning tomorrow, this paper will feature "Sad Sack" a comic character strip drawn by our own home town boy, the famous cartoonist, Donnie Decker.....
