A New Beginning

The time is drawing nigh to each other we'll say good-bye.
We've really come a long way, from when we were those scared little freshmen that first day.
Not knowing what to expect,
when a senior spoke we'd stand erect.
Our sophomore and junior years really flew and most of us matured and grew.
First dates, new friendships and decisions came along only making us start to belong.
New questions began to appear
We faced these with happiness and fear.
Then as "Seniors" we strutted our stuff,
On the freshmen we put our bluff.
Now as the end is almost here,
our new beginning is very near.
For awhile, we'll part to begin anew
But we won't forget how together we grew.
Some time along the way
We will meet again one day.
The changes will seem unbelievable then
A person who was a "1" might even be a "10".
Our memories of friends, crazy times, laughter and tears will carry us through the years.
To each other we'll always be dear,
and in our minds the memory will stay clear.
It's a new beginning for the class of 82,
Good luck and best wishes to each other is due.

Aside from those who are career oriented, there are those who are just the opposite. Some of the worries include Mary combing her hair, Michelle ironing, and how many laps people are able to make through the halls from 8-8:30. Even yet, there are some who just can't make themselves care that early in the morning such as . . . Ryan, Dana and Shawn. Café, Tea, Or Me?

In November, the foreign language club hosted the faculty of CHS with a continental breakfast. It was held from 7:45 am-8:25 am in the resource center. The menu consisted of crepes, café con leche (café au lait), and crescent rolls, which were all prepared by the students and their advisor, Mrs. Susan Wiggs.

Taking tests is a common practice in high school. On this page, Mrs. Schafer's Language II class appears to be diligently concentrating on their JULIUS CAESAR chapter test, while Mr. Sander's students are taking an advanced math exam.

Counseling is not the only thing Mr. Brubaker does. He is in charge of class scheduling, preparing students for careers or further education, and even writes an admit slip or two to help the school secretary.

Mr. Smith's vocal music class is a preparatory class to mixed chorus. The students learn how to read music, do voice drills, and sing. Pictured here are a few of Mr. Smith's students.

Mr. Tony Sander, math teacher, has a couple of computers in his classroom. Before school, during noon, and after school he helps students work on them. Pictured here are three interested students, Gina Seidel, Craig Buechler, and Craig Ritchie.

At the head of the same hall is the office. A very common face there is that of Sally Heuer, the high school secretary. Sally is responsible for answering the telephone, takes care of the accounting and attendance records, types, mails out deficiency slips, is the nurse when the nurse isn't here, takes lunch money on Mondays,

There are two sides to the CHS hallways. In the early morning hours of the day, after school, and on weekends the halls are very quiet and peaceful. In between classes, at basketball games, wrestling meets, concerts, plays, banquets, and graduation the halls are buzzing with activity. The bench next to Mrs. Davidson's room seems to be a "pit stop" for many students. What better place to catch all the local gossip, look at girls, look at guys, or wait for your next class to start?

FTA Honors American Ed. Week

American Education Week was November 16-20. There were many different activities which the FTA planned. On Monday, the FTA members dressed up and wore FTA stickers to publicize the week and to help the club gain recognition. Wednesday was color day. Each class was to wear the color assigned to them: seniors - green, juniors - blue, sophomores - red, and freshmen - yellow. Juniors were congratulated for having the most of their color. Friday was the day when FTA members were supposed to impersonate a teacher: past, present or future. The two outstanding members that participated were Joyce Chandler and Gina Seidel who dressed like teachers from the past. The FTA slave auction was held. FTA members were obligated to do any work that the teacher who bought them, asked them to do. To keep Centralia High School teachers on the go, FTA members furnished refreshments for the teachers' lounge during the entire week. The American Education week was a big success.

Everyone on these two pages is just doing his own thing! While some are studying, others are sewing, singing, talking, or chewing, but no matter what, they're having a good time! Some are even embarrassed about having their picture taken. Let's face it, fourth hour is an exciting hour!

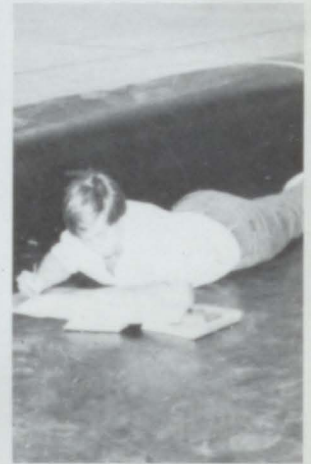

The lunch room is the best place to sell Panther Tales, tickets for the pep bus, dance tickets, panther power tickets, or vote for candidates running for office. Two or three days a week it is used for those purposes.

The lunch hour is also the time of day when the pay phone is in much demand. Did you ever wonder how many students ACTUALLY call their mothers?

Band, Contemp. Living Work Hard!

The CHS band people work very hard at trying to get their performance just right. The color guards have a hard time at just holding the flags still, much less trying to do a routine in that wind.

Mrs. Grove's first semester contemporary living class accomplished many things. The students basically studied the fundamentals of being single. They brought jeans to be patched, and items that needed buttons to be repaired. They learned how to launder their clothing properly, and made chef's aprons.

The cooking unit consisted of making homemade pizzas, cinnamon rolls, light and fluffy loaves of bread and biscuits, "Denver Scramble," fried chicken, "lump-free" gravy, and ended with a barbeque. The students spent a short time on purchasing groceries also.

Renting versus buying was discussed in the housing unit, and purchasing men's clothing was discussed in the consumerism unit.

CHS Spirit Shines Bright

The 1981 Homecoming celebration proved to be an exciting and victorious time for the CHS students. Students displayed their outstanding spirit and support for our team by dressing up according to different themes each day. Monday was Twin Day and everyone dressed up in matching attire. Tuesday was Autograph T-shirt Day. Old sweat-shirts were worn and signatures signed to them in colorful markers. Following the Homecoming theme, Wednesday was Country and Western Day. Jeans, hats, bandannas, and boots were worn by everyone.

Student participation was great and helped boost our team's spirits for a Homecoming victory.

One of the high points of the junior year is ordering the class ring. That is the time when juniors call in all their debts and beg their parents for money.

Class rings were ordered on September 8, during the fifth and sixth hours. A dropped pin could be heard as the students carefully listened and chose rings from their pamphlets. Sizes were taken and gems were chosen. Yellow gold was chosen over white gold because yellow gold was lower in price.

During football, basketball, and wrestling seasons, pep rallies were frequently held. Pictured on this page are

Lester Hill: Corp. In the Class- room

The business world came to C.H.S. in the form of a corporation. The corporation's name was Lester Hill. Mrs. Gordon's clerical class got a taste of the business world during the office simulation. The taste was bitter and sweet. There were several departments in the firm. Mrs. Gordon, of course, was the executive vice-president. Tara Motley was general manager. In the sales department, taking care of orders and complaints, was Kim Beard, Sales Manager. In the warehouse, Sandy George was manager. Controlling the flow of traffic was traffic manager, Michelle Wright. Giving her fingers a work out on the adding machine in the accounting department was manager Dana Hinton. With a host of other clerk receptionists and representatives of Talidata, the wheels of business were turning at C.H.S.

One of the highlights of the courtwarming assembly was when the cheerleaders timed Shelle Ryan and Kurt Pemberton for three minutes as they shot free-throws. Kurt won in the end, much to the girl's despair.

On January 26, the seniors gathered with impatience to be sized for their much awaited for caps and gowns. Seniors decided they would graduate in blues.

"This is an emergency! Evacuate the building!" These are the words that rang through the halls of the school buildings January 28, 1982. A break in a gas line caused a tremendous amount of pressure to flush through the low lines in the town, causing furnaces to blow up and fires to spread all over town which were not located in any particular section of town. Immediately, surrounding towns sent their fire departments to aid the Centralia station. Many people were affected. Everyone from friends in school to the elderly. The most important and blessing part of this tragedy was that no one was hurt. Everybody stayed reasonably calm, followed instructions, and cooperated with town officials. Many people offered their help in shutting off gas and going through the area looking to give help to the needy.

As the day grew on, the feeling of

uncertainty subsided, and the firemen began to get the fires under control. The job of taking care of the people left without homes now lied ahead. Red Cross came in and set up aid stations in the local churches providing food, clothing, and shelter. As the day turned into night, speculation of turning the gas back on was being broadcast over radio stations. Others were sitting around watching the national attention on TV from helicopters, planes, mobile units who came in to cover the fire. This helped because people noticed and began to send donations in immediately. The aid stations stayed opened throughout the night as men turned the gas back on and heat was in the community. The work went well into the morning as well as people beginning to regroup their lives. We attended school the next day, and next few days were ones that showed people really, still care. Clothes, food, and furniture along with money were provided for the people devastated by the fires.

Centralians' pride showed as everybody chipped in and the people picked up and got going again. The fire pulled everybody together, but it's a shame that such a tragedy was what did it.

Camera Person Strikes Again!

The Heliostat roving cameraperson visited different afternoon classes. In Mr. Schoonover's room, students are attempting to listen to one of his daily lectures in sociology.

At the Thanksgiving assembly, advanced speech classes brought us a skit with Grandma Julie and Grandpa Tim and ALL of their grandchildren. They had a crazy time getting their Thanksgiving supper ready with all of the comings and goings of sons, daughters, grandchildren, and heart fund collectors.

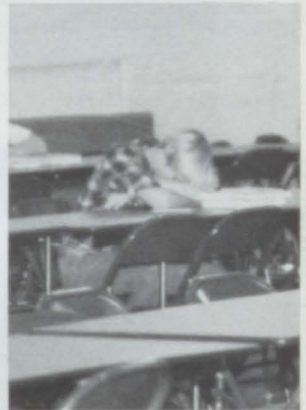

Next we visited Mrs. Grove's seventh hour home ec. class. The girls were working on their sewing projects at that time.

During study hall usually the name of the game is studying, but in Mark Kottwitz's case, it's nap-hall.

Our AFS student, Saleh Soud, is a perfect example of good study hall behavior as he works diligently with his foreign homework. While Saleh is working, his neighbor, Darren Sexton, seems to be getting the hottest gossip of the day.

All-Choir Picnic Proved Successful

Location: Centralia
City Park
Date: August, 15;
Tuesday
Time: 6:00-8:30 pm

The City Park was the location of the all-choir picnic held early last fall. Approximately forty students attended the affair. Several games were played - a life-saver game in which you pass a life-saver from one person to another with a toothpick, and students were asked to recall and recite their "most embarrassing" moment. Some students danced to music provided by a cassette tape player, while others played frisbee. The menu included:

- hot dogs
- baked beans
- potato chips
- Mt. dew or Pepsi.

It was a four-ten minute quarter game that was on August 28, Friday night, at 7:30. The game was scoreless until the third quarter. At the mid-point of the fourth quarter the first string varsity unit got together and produced two scores.

Coach Miles said that he felt, "They had a lot of good performances, but as you would expect from a first scrimmage, they didn't execute well. They had fewer penalties than we had anticipated, which certainly was a positive factor going into our first game." The purpose of the scrimmage was a final look at their personnel to establish the starting line-up for the opening game. It was an intersquad game. They simply divided their squads as evenly as possible.

The freshman concluded the scrimmage. They played two-ten minute quarters. The freshmen managed three touchdowns and displayed a solid balanced attack. Coach Miles felt the freshmen displayed good poise and had several impressive plays.

The first dance of the year was held following the first home game. The loss of the game kept the morale low, but a descent crowd showed up in the cafeteria. John Buck and Joyce Chandler portrayed disc jockies and positioned their "sound system" on the stage. At the stroke of eleven, the records stopped and the dancers journeyed home.

Becky Bartee named 1981 Homecoming Queen

Senior Becky Bartee was crowned queen of the 1981 Centralia Homecoming Friday night at halftime of the Centralia-Monroe City game. She is the daughter of Gary Bartee and Karen Harrison. Elly Schram, 1980 queen, crowned her successor.

The queen crowning was one of the highlights of the homecoming activities which began with the building of the floats, gained momentum Thursday night with a flashlight parade and bonfire, reached its peak with a football victory, and ended with a dance Saturday night.

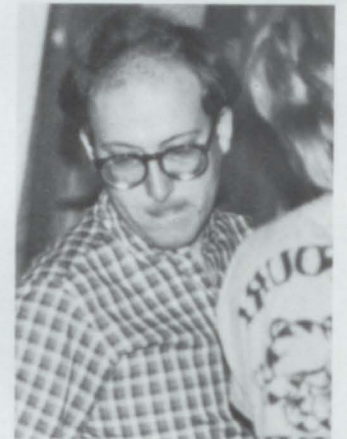

To get students fired up, there was a class spirit tape race, M&M count and different dress-up days. The freshmen won the tape race and Susan Greene won the M&M count. Monday was twin day, Tuesday was autograph T-shirt day, Wednesday was Western day and Friday was black magic day.

The float winners were COE first; sophomores, second; and the juniors took third. Quadra Sound furnished the music at the dance, when Rick Beasley was announced Mr. Panther.

By parade time at 1:30 Friday, crowds gathered in the business district to watch the marchers. Over twenty floats, cars, and bands made up the parade, which entered the downtown area with the police chief's siren heralding the way.

Winning first place for their float was the COE class with their entry, "You Gotta Know When to Hold 'Em", in keeping with the country and western theme.

The sophomores took second place with the float, "Take This Ball and Shove It," and juniors took third with the float, "We'll make Monroe City Cowards of the County".

At Saturday's dance, Quadra Sound furnished the music. Senior Rick Beasley was announced as the new 1981 Mr. Panther. This ended a very successful Homecoming.

KRAZY KAMP, you had to be there!

The advanced speech classes presented the play KRAZY KAMP on the evenings of April 22 and 23 in the Centralia High School gymnasium. Proceeds from the play each year go to purchasing new stage equipment.

The cast of characters were as follows: Carla Rusch, Brett Moore, Julie Wainscott, Karen Dolens, Craig Ritchie, Tim Elsbury, Becky Bartee, Dana Mortimer, Deanna Walker, Joyce Chandler, Brian Forrest, Cathy Greene, Brandie Bowman, Michelle Wright, Ida Hunter, Sheila Hampton, Dean Cook, Jeff Hockman, Tim Hulen, Chet Berry, Koni McCubbin, Steve Sanders, Wayne Branham, Robert West, and Loyd Wilson.

The action of the play takes place at Camp Pocahontas, an exclusive summer camp for young ladies. Camp John Smith, a summer camp for boys located across the lake, may have to be shut down for the summer, so Adam, the camp director, talks Eve into allowing "his" boys to spend a few days at Camp Pocahontas until it can be cleaned up.

The next few days prove to be eventful. Camp John Smith's boys are real nerds, Alva's cousin Elmer unexpectedly arrives with stolen money, two thugs are after Elmer and lurking in the woods, one of the campers is a runaway, one is an elite snob, and the camp inspector arrives to find that Camp Pocahontas is unfit for campers!

There were no "stars" in this year's play. Mrs. Sherry Davidson, director of KRAZY KAMP, chose her cast well. Each character was a star in himself.

FHA/FFA Weeks Termed Success

The week of February 20-27 was National FFA Week. The FFA chapter had several activities throughout the week to celebrate. Monday night got things started off with Chapter Farmer initiation. Five members were given the Chapter Farmer degree that night. Tuesday night, there was a meeting to discuss organizing an alumni affiliate to the Centralia FFA Chapter. Anyone who came into the parking lot Wednesday could see several large tractors that members had driven to draw attention to one of the main tools used in agriculture production. Thursday morning, the FFA members served pancakes and sausage to the teachers. Friday was FFA jacket day, when all members were to wear their jacket. Also on Friday, a cake was served to the teachers at lunch. National FFA Week acted as a sort of forerunner to the activities of the local FFA chapter. Later this spring, the chapter members will participate in district agriculture contests, state convention, two banquets, and several other projects.

February 7-13 was National FHA week. The Future Homemakers of the Centralia Chapter planned and followed through with a full week of activities to celebrate the week. On Sunday FHA members attended the church of their choice. This was a terrific way to start the week off right. On Monday, the FHA officers wore appropriate stickers telling of the office they held, while the members wore stickers that read, "I'm proud to be in FHA." Smiling oranges were passed out. Drawn on them were smiling faces. A flag ascended from the top saying, "Start your ignition with good nutrition." These oranges were given to all school personnel. On Tuesday, some people participated in dressing in the 50's style. On Wednesday, the FHA members served the teachers and school personnel breakfast. The menu consisted of sausage strata, hot biscuits, jelly, orange juice, grape juice, and coffee. Mrs. Dean Jacobs, chapter mother, was an honored guest. Thursday was nerd day. We had some unusual nerds! Friday was red and white day, which are the chapter colors. This day was also to honor Valentine's day.

CHS HEROES

This year's Courtwarming, January 25-29, centered around the theme "Greatest American Hero."

The over all winner of the hall decorations was the freshman class. Sophomores came in second, with the juniors placing third.

The excitement of the day drew on into Friday evening, as the Centralia

Panthers met the Cardinals on our own home court. The Panther girls proved victorious as they outscored the Cards during the first game. The boys' game was equally exciting and successful as the Panthers, again, overtook the Cardinals. Senior Cathy Greene and Kevin Meeks were crowned Courtwarming Queen and King for 1982, during half-time. Mr. and Miss Basketball, entitled Karla Buck and Dan Wieschhaus to be crowned in honor of their outstanding athletic ability. For further half-time entertainment, the varsity cheerleaders performed a dance routine to "Physical," by Olivia Newton-John.

Due to poor weather conditions, the dance was postponed until Saturday, February 6. Music was provided by "Night and Day" and the cost was $2.50 per person.

Foreign Language Teachers At CHS

From March 5-18 was a busy two weeks for the Spanish II and French II classes.

The first week was spent preparing the lessons and rehearsing them to the class. The second week was spent at the elementary school teaching second graders.

For Spanish II, Dana Hinton and Brian Forrest taught Miss Ellis' class. Dana Mortimer, Tim Hulen and Paul Marrow taught Mrs. Herd's class. John Buck and Kurt Hubin taught Mrs. Roberts' class.

For French II, Christi Eckley,

Brian Mahieu and Mary Wormington taught Mrs. Tanner's class.

There were a variety of things taught to the children. How to say their name in Spanish or French, greetings, colors, numbers, animals and their sounds were topics covered.

Name tags were passed out the first day to each child with their name in Spanish and French.

Each day something different was taught, bringing new excitement for the kids. Treats and lemonade were passed out the last day.

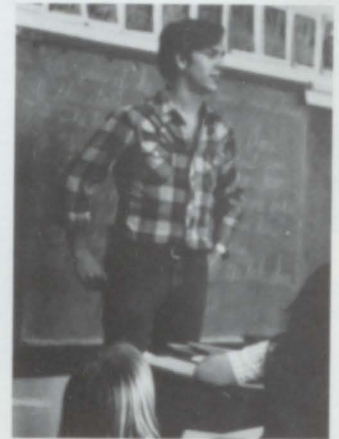

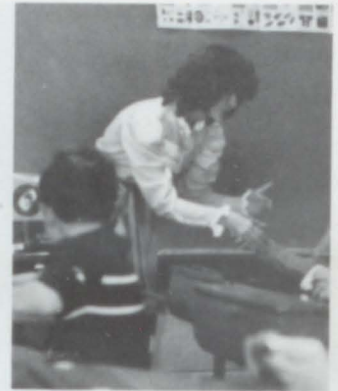

On Tuesday evening, March 30, the foreign language club held a dinner and film festival in the high school cafeteria.

Every individual was asked to bring a French or Spanish dish.

Approximately twenty-five people were in attendance.

"Le Million" (the millionaire) was the title of the French film which was shown. It was a comedy which was very popular in the 1930's.

Penny Bloss and Yvetta Roberts had very positive thoughts ut the foreign language club this year. Yvetta stated that she wished that "a lot more people could be in it." Penny said, "It's been a good experience, like at the dinner you learn what other countries' foods are like."

Country Western Theme Dominates Band Carnival

Boot Tappin' Time was the theme of the band carnival which was held on Saturday, March 20. Proceeds from this years' carnival will be going towards the band uniform fund.

The carnival actually began with the chili supper at 4:30. The curtains opened for the variety show at 8:00, but between the chili supper and variety show, carnival goers could try their luck at the different booths.

Between acts of the variety show was the coronation of this year's king and queen Harlan Wisdom and Becky Bartee; and the prince and princess, Kenneth Whitehair and Shelly Leach.

Winners of the Legs Contest were Leif Lomo, Chester Boren, and Daryl Prenger, respectively.

Cake walk drawing winners were Shirley Bartee and Julie Wainscott. James Baley won a hind quarter of beef, and Pa Ferren won a Zenith stereo-radio.

Performers Profoundly Praised

"I was particularly proud of the group's discipline both on and off the stage. They have all worked very hard, and that total commitment to the ensemble has certainly paid off."

CHS Choral Director Daniel Smith spoke highly of the Centralia Concert Choir and Girls' Glee, who undoubtedly deserved his praise.

On Thursday evening, March 25, both large ensembles performed before a panel of three judges at the Northeast District Music Festival in Mexico. Both groups received the highest rating of I (excellent), thereby proving their hard work and effort, paid off. The Concert Choir performed two selections before the judges. The first was "Je le vous dirai!" which was sung in French. Second was "Kyrie eleison" meaning Lord Have Mercy. The choir was evaluated in the following categories: tone quality, diction, technical facility, balance, musical effort, choice of music, and stage presence. Mr. Smith reports that there are now 110 members in the choir — the largest group to participate in the festival.

The Girls' Glee Club also sang two selections: "Rise Up My Love, My Fair One" and "Love For You My Heart Is Burning."

On Saturday, March 27, Several CHS singers returned to Mexico to be evaluated by individual judges. Those receiving a I rating were: vocal solos; Kirk Arnold, Deanna Beasley, Michelle Davidson, Mark Haubein, Lisa Smith; small ensembles; Boys'

Double Quartet.

Receiving a II rating (superior) were: vocal solos; Shawn Berry, Penny Bloss, Gina Seidel, Paula Smith, John Stockdall, Sonya Willis, Harlan Wisdom; small ensembles; Chamber Singers, Senior Madrigal, Double Mixed Quartet I, Double Mixed Quartet II, Girl's Sextet I, Girl's Sextet IV, Senior Girls' Quartet; Piano solos; Cathy Greene, Sarah Mitchell, Leslie Popeck.

For the twelfth consecutive year, the CHS Concert Band has received a I rating in the Northeast District Music Festival.

The band, under the direction of Mr. Brad Moore, played two musical compositions titled "With Sword and Lance" and "Rushmore." March 27 was the concluding day of the music festival. Other top rating students or groups from CHS were: piano solo, Susan Greene; Saxophone Quartet; Flute Quartet; Boys' Double Quartet; Madrigal Ensemble; Percussion Ensemble; flute solo, Leslie Popeck.

Kangaroos In Centralia?

On Friday, March 26, the Centralia chapter of the Knights of Columbus hosted a basketball game at the CHS gym. The competitors were members of CHS coaching staff and friends, and members of St. Louis Cardinals football team. Proceeds from this game were to go to the victims of the fire that occurred in Centralia on January 28.

Special guests were Steve (Stipo) Stipanovich and the University of Missouri Golden Girls. "Stipo" played for the CHS team during the second and third quarters, scoring 29 points. CHS basketball coach Jim Enlow was the next high scorer with 27 points. The Golden Girls performed at half-time.

Also during half-time, raffles were drawn for Kangaroo shoes, Kangaroo hats, tee shirts, two five dollar certificates from Prenger's IGA, a football from Ritchie's Hardware Store, and a football from Gladney's.

Keep up with the Einsteins.

You don't have to be a genius to use an Apple personal computer. But you can start acting like one.

Because Apples are so easy to use and afford that almost half a million people are using them every day. To help them get ahead in business. In school. Even at home.

So come in today for a free demonstration. And we'll show you what it's like to have an 11-pound brain that thinks at the speed of light.

You turn us on . . .

When you flick on the lights . . . or turn on the TV . . . or anytime you use electricity to lighten your work and brighten your life.

You have to know us well to see the connection between the switch on your wall and the company called Chance.

It's a long way — sometimes hundreds of miles — from the power plant to the switch at your fingertips. Bridging those miles is an intricate network of electric utility power lines that carry electricity to the switch on your wall.

To build, maintain, operate and control that network, the electric utilities turn to Chance and our thousand-and-one-and-then-some products . . . and that's what turns us on, because, you see, we're the people behind the people behind the switch!

It's a jungle out there

The financial world is a jungle - you can't make it by yourself.

You need a trusted guide, someone who knows the territory. Someone like American Bank. Our business is finance and we know our business. We can give you sound advice and help you get your finances back on solid ground.

Make like Tarzan and swing on over to American Bank - where you'll never get Cheetahed.
