All were a success, with the seniors taking first place in the float building (even though it caught on fire), everyone getting a laugh at who was wearing what, enjoying the speeches that were given to pump us up for the game and then defeating the Highland Cougars on Friday night with a score of 50-13. With the victory, Centralia students danced all night (well until midnight), ending 2006 Homecoming the right way.

Madrigal

Fun, festive, food. What do all these have in common? The 21st annual Centralia High School madrigals! Due to inclement weather, two performances of "Handel and Gretzky: A Tale of Two Kiddles," a spoof on Hanzel and Gretel, were held Sunday, Dec. 3.

"Dinner included broccoli and cheese soup from Quiznos, turkey leg smoked by the Tainters, aka Sticky Pig barbecue sauce makers, carrots, celery, and ranch dressing, baked potatoes, and your very own caramel apple," director Leah Rolfson said.

Main characters in this year's performance were Jester, Tina Gorchos; Merton, Courtney Mitchell; Director, Henery Washington; Daddy-Step-Mommy, Amy Admire; Witch, Shauna Cox; King, Gabe Martinez; Queen, Kalyn Trentham; sound effects, Josh Admire; and Town Crier, Kim Brown. One hundred twenty students were involved in this year's production.

The first madrigal was held in the early 14th century. Former choral director Claude Westfall brought it to CHS in 1985.

Courtwarming 2007

A Black & White

The Courtwarming theme for 2007 was A Black and White Tie Affair. This year's event, against the Louisiana Bulldogs, also had a secondary theme. Called coaches vs. cancer, coaches, cheerleaders, and basketball players wore pink in their fight against cancer with the American Cancer Society and NABC. The coaches agreed that if each team player raised $25, they would wear pink shoelaces for the game.

During the week Courtwarming dress up days were Monday, White Out Day; Tuesday, Suit and Tie Day; Wednesday, Show Your Stripes Day; Thursday was Blackout Day, and Friday was Courtwarming t-shirt day.

This year's Courtwarming king candidates were John Bohlmeyer, Clint Gesling, Nathan Mahieu, Mark Morse, and Jason Ward. Queen candidates were Megan Creel, Jenna Drake, Courtney Mitchell, Samantha Richman, and Shelly Rosenfelder. Coronation took place during half-time of the boys' game. This year's Courtwarming king and queen were Mark Morse and Shelly Rosenfelder.

Wall decoration winners were first, the Seniors; second, freshmen; third, sophomores; and fourth, the juniors.

The girls won their game 61-20, and the boys won their game 55-37. The dance began immediately after the game in the cafeteria.

Matwarming 2007

Matwarming was held Jan. 25, 2007. Two junior varsity grapplers wrestled: Austin Blackwell and Dakota Moore; all varsity grapplers wrestled with the exception of Dayne Aitkens, who received a bye. The Panthers lost by three points: 33-36.

Mr. Grappler candidates were Boone Lee and Kameron Reams. Prior to the meet, last year's Mr. Grappler Schuyler Prenger crowned Lee and Kylynn Cook 2007 Mr. Grappler and Matwarming Queen.

Festival of Bands Concert/Pie Auction

This year CHS band parents and director Rob Goade decided that it was time for a change in CHS band carnival history. Chili and vegetable soup were served in place of hosting carnival games and door prizes. The Festival of Bands Concert and Pie auction was held at 7 p.m., March 17, 2007, in the high school cafeteria and gym.

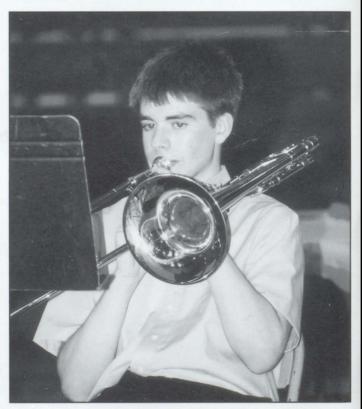

In the interlude between the high school and middle school band performances, Fair Auctions auctioned off pies donated by the community. This year $4,968.28 was raised to add to the band fund.

The high school band played "Amparita Roca", "Chorale and Shaker Dance II" and "The Lion King". The coronation was held after the concert. This year's king and queen candidates were seniors Neal Martin and Suzanne Hedberg, juniors Andrew Cutforth and Rena Coen, sophomores Dalton Reeves and Lauren Burkhardt, and freshmen Michael Collins and Kendra Moore. Festival of bands King and Queen 2007 were Andrew Cutforth and Suzanne Hedberg.

CHS vo-ag teacher, Scott Stone, received the 2006 Outstanding Agriculture Teacher award presented by the Missouri Vocational Agriculture Teachers Association. Sponsored by the National Association of Agriculture Teachers, the organization recognizes one ag teacher from each state.

Eligibilty requires that an ag teacher's name is submitted to the state. Stone then submitted lesson plans, along with his teaching philosophy and letters of recommendation. Following that, the selection committee interviewed Stone's students.

Senior Jessica Young, also a student at Hart-Mexico Technical School, won first place in automotive technology at the Northeast Missouri District SkillsUSA contest in February in Moberly. In late March she competed at the state level.

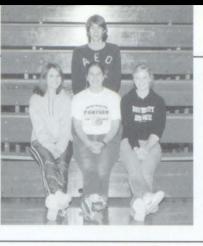

SkillsUSA is a national nonprofit organization serving a quarter-million high school students, college students, and professional members enrolled in technical, skilled, and service occupations.

On an early Saturday morning in August 2005, a train hit junior Danielle Williams and her mother Flo on their way to the hairdresser. That day Danielle missed a softball tournament so that she could be a bridesmaid in her brother's wedding. Their funeral followed the next week. On Sept. 29, 2006, her fellow seniors hosted a tree planting ceremony, which the entire CHS student body attended. Pictured here are her father, Terry Williams; sister-in-law, Mindy Williams; brother, Taurean Williams, and brother, Travis Williams. Spring Musical Comedy: The Pajama Game

Directed by Scott Long, musical direction by Leah Rolfson April 20 and 21

Based on the novel 7 1/2 cents by Richard Bissel, the musical portrayed a group of pajama factory workers in 1954 Iowa. Playing lead roles were Courtney Mitchell (Babe Williams), the head of the factory grievance committee, and Gabe Martinez (Sid Sorokin), the factory's new manager. Henry Washington and Amy Admire performed dramatic roles in the musical, Amy playing Glady and Henry portraying Hines.

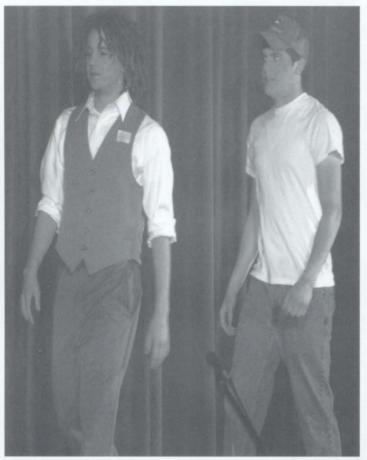

(Ricci Skirvin photos)

George Abbott and Richard Bissell wrote the play; however, Richard Adler and Jerry Ross wrote the music and lyrics. The story revolves around employees of the Sleeptite Pajama Factory looking for a seven-anda-half cent increase in pay. Babe, their spunky employee representative, is no match for shop superintendent Sid.

Students started practicing in February for the late April performance. Tickets were $4 for students and $7 for adults.

Midnight

Hosted by the Junior class, this year's prom, "Midnight in Paris," was held at the Stephens College campus Kimball Ballroom. Prom chaperones Danielle Bennett, JoDean Newsted, Linda Schafer, and Tonya Schmidt showed up at 10 a.m. and worked throughout the morning and afternoon to ready the room for prom attendees. Mexico High School social studies teacher and coach Steve Haag deejayed for the evening. The night's events included everything from slow dancing to the Electric Slide. The Grand March started at 9 p.m., but the main event was the crowning of the King Boone Lee and Queen Malissa Beasley.

Commencement

Commencement ceremonies were held at 3:00 p.m., May 13, in the CHS gym. Seniors selected Henry Washington and Kim Brown to lead the processional as the band played "Pomp and Circumstance." A panel of teachers chose Tina Gorchos and Johnna Smith to deliver commencement speeches. The top 10 recognized graduates were Lindsey Bramon (10), Nathan Mahieu (9), Emily Cannell (8), Colby Dollens (7), Bradley Corwin (6), Tina Gorchos (5), Alex Benoit (4), Amy Admire (2). Shelly Rosenfelder and Neal Martin were tied for first.

According to guidance secretary Donna Ford, "Over 59% of those who plan to continue their education have been granted scholarships or awards totalling over $160,000 the first year, and if renewed, that amount could be in excess of $500,000."

Broken Pipes Damage Library, Computer Lab

The weekend before Christmas, CHS teacher Mike Hann discovered water covering the floor of the computer lab, soaking at least five computers. After further investigation, librarian Terri Brunner noticed that water damage extended into the library. Pipes had broken in the computer lab.

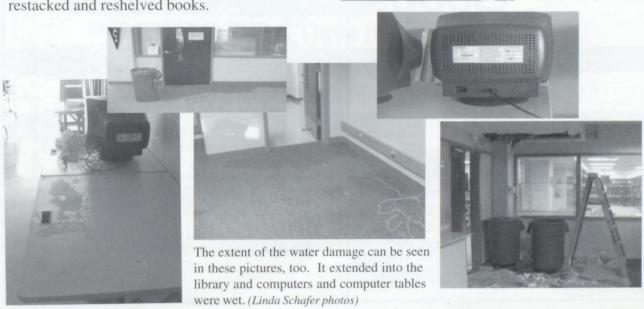

Deciding not only to fix the pipes, Superintendent Darin Ford and CHS Principal John Rinehart opted to also repaint the walls and replace all of the carpet in both rooms. Jamie Armontrout, Ronnie Beamer, Ed and Ernestine Dunstan, Mike Hight's industrial technology class, Brunner, and approximately 60 students installed carpet, painted, reinstalled shelves, restacked and reshelved books.

Panthers Go

During the 2006 football season the Centralia Panthers had strong victories like the 35-7 win against South Shelby who was ranked number two in Class 1. They also had strong victory after traveling to New Madrid, 34-22. By the end of the season, the Panthers won districts against Montgomery County, for the fourth time in five years. The Centralia Panthers had a perfect season of 10-0 until an unfortunate defeat against the Blair Oaks Falcons, 28-6.

Included in the Panthers' successful season, several individual players and a coach were awarded as well for their skill in the game. Coach Erle Bennett was awarded the winning game ball that scored his 100th win at Centralia High School.

Five seniors and three juniors were selected for the 2006 All-District team (listed below). Two players, senior Jake Romine and junior Justin Moore were also chosen for the AP's All-State team. Romine earned a spot on the second-team offense as a running back. Moore earned his spot as a second team defensive back. Moore, Romine, along with Dyson Dick were also choosen by the Missouri Football Coaches Association for the Class 2 All-State Team. Senior Clint Gesling was also nominated for the Wendy's High School Heisman Award. In order to qualify for this nomination, Gesling not only demonstrated his skill on the field, but also his academic excellence in the classroom.

"BIG D NO E!!"

The varsity softball team ended its season with a 9-13 record. According to head coach Jill Angell, there were definitely some highlights: beating Highland 2-1 in 12 innings, and beating Westran 1-0. "However, we also had our share of lows: not placing in either tournament and getting beat by teams we really felt we should have beaten. This was a major rebuilding year for this team, with only three returning starters. This was a great group of girls who never gave up and always strived to do their best!!" Angell said.

DOLLENS, HEDBERG, AND RICHMAN

QUALIFY FOR STATE

This year the girls' golf team rounded out an exceptional season. With two returning seniors and two returning juniors, they were guaranteed some wins. This season was also a learning experience for the nine freshman who joined the team. Overall, they finished the year 3-6. At the Paris, Westran, and California Invitationals the team finished in the top five. Individually in the Paris Invitational Samantha Richman and Darrah Dollens tied for first. Katie Dollens shot a 111 for 18 holes, a personal best, at the Westran Invitational. The girls placed third at the district meet and qualified for state. This was Richman's fourth time at state and Suzanne Hedberg's first. At state Darrah Dollens was 45th, Richman was 47th, and Hedberg was 96th out of 119.

This year was a good season in whole. Katie Dollens, Heather Rackley, and Hedberg all shot personal bests, and the low average was set by Darrah Dollens at 46.7. A breakthrough in the season was Hedberg's 55.4, average and the most improved was Alli Hopkins, who went from not finishing a round to shooting a 60. Even though the team is going to lose two seniors in May, coach Matt McKenzie said, "We are excited about the future and direction of the program."

Freshmen Girls' Basketball 2007

The freshmen Lady Panthers had a 5-4 season with coach John Finlay at their side. This year they beat Westran, North Callaway, Southern Boone, and Mexico. The girls beat Monroe City twice this year and placed second in the freshmen classic hosted by Centralia High School.

"We came together as a team this year by playing solid man to man and zone defense. Our press was effective against a majority of our op-fective against a majority of our opponents. Offensively, we seemed to have a different player step up and have a good scoring night each game. Altogether we had a fun season with a hard working, tough-minded group of girls," Finlay said.

JV Boys' Basketball

The jv boys' basketball team was fairly young as there were more freshmen than sophomores. According to coach Ty Harrison, each player improved throughout the season.

Harrison also said freshman Matt Rusch scored the most points with 116. Tim Mundy scored the most points during one game (20), and the best point average per game was held by Aaron Kroeger with 11.

Highlights of the season were beating Macon 48-27 and beating Hallsville 50-35.

VARSITY BOYS BATTLE TOUGH COMPETITION

Ending Season G-19

The Panthers finished their season with a record of 6-19. Throughout the season, the Panthers played for trophies but fell short during the Centralia and Macon Tournaments. Several players received recognition from Coach Brian Brown.

Juniors Jardyn Angell and Derek Parnell were named to the CCC Honorable Mention Team. Angell was also named the "Offensive Player of the Year." Junior Brian Buckert was named the team's "Most Improved Player." "The Newcomer of the Year" was awarded to junior DJ Robertson. Senior Jason Ward was named the "Defensive Player of the Year," and John Bohlmeyer received the "Hustle" award. Other letter winners included juniors Dyson Dick and Evan Wainscott, and freshmen Aaron Kroeger and Matt Rusch.

"Centralia improved in every statistical category from the previous year, and the players showed tremendous improvement throughout," Brown said.

According to coach Roger Stone, the varsity baseball fell short of some goals they set at the beginning of the season. Some individuals will be rewarded with post-season awards. The team started off the season at 6-1, but they lost momentum around the Boonville Wood Bat tournament, finishing the last 11 games by going 5-6. Inclement weather contributed to that.

"We hardly got on the field due to rain, and when you are limited to the number of practices, it shows up down the road," Stone said.

Art Club Member's Drawing Chosen to Hang in Governor's Office

Art Club is a service organization that gets students involved with art outside of school. Each year in October members host Art in the Park, in conjunction with a Knights of Columbus fall activity. They paint faces, have crafty activities available, and allow children to paint pumpkins to take home.

The first of November members painted Curves. During the Christmas season they painted ornaments for teachers and staff.

In March members stayed after school and filled plastic eggs with candy before hosting their annual Easter Egg hunt at Centralia High School.

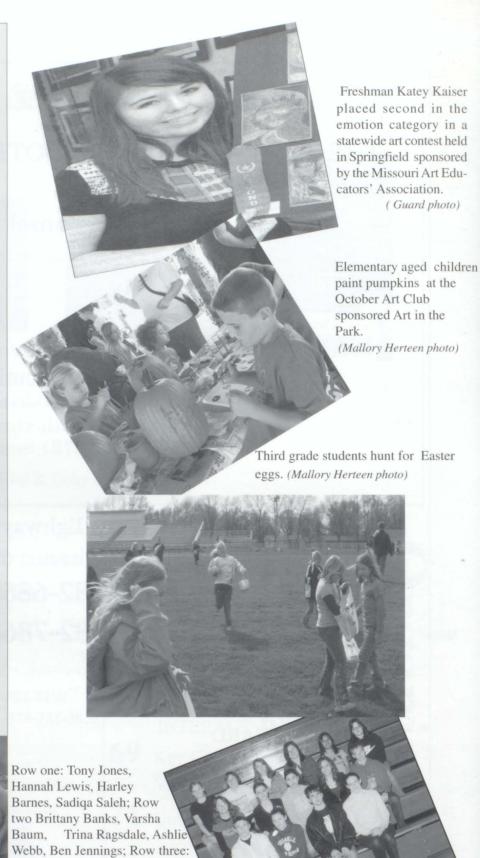

The 20 members met the second Tuesday morning of each month in sponsor Doris Wood's classroom.

Art club member and senior Courtney Mitchell's colored pencil drawing of the American flag, embossed with her brother's image, won the Governor's Choice Award. As a result, it will hang in Missouri Governor Matt Blunt's office for one year.

It is a nonprofit career and technical organization for young men and women in family and consumer sciences education. The FCCLA mission is to promote personal growth and leadership development through family and consumer sciences.

The activities members participated in this year were caroling at a nursing home, making blankets for Rainbow House, attending a regional meeting, hosting a teachers' appreciation breakfast, providing a Halloween safety party for elementary school children, pizza party, spring prom skin care party, and the end of the year officer initiation.

The National Education Association started Future Teachers of America (FTA) in the twentieth century. FTA assist high school students in exploring teaching as a career choice, provide a realistic understanding of teaching, and encourage students from diverse backgrounds to consider the teaching profession.

FTA met the first and third Thursdays of each month in Teresa Thrasher's classroom. Students attended the state FTA conference in October and in the fall and also visited a corn maze. The officers of FTA are president, Amy Admire, vice president, Megan Creel, and Secretary, Mallory Herteen.

The National FFA organization is a club focused on premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. The Centralia FFA prides itself as being one of the best in Missouri and is ranked in the top 30 chapters. Chapter advisor Scott Stone meets with members once a month and participates in numerous recreational and leadership activities like shop hockey and ice skating. FFA members must be enrolled in an agricultural class and pay the yearly dues. FFA is fun and filled with opportunities that help students better their leadership skills.

Interact

This year Interact hosted a successful blood drive in conjunction with the American Red Cross. Sixty-three donated blood, and 41 were first time donors; thus, producing 52 units to the American Red Cross. Interact's community service activity was going to be renovating the library to make it more teen friendly. However, a water leak in December made this impossible. Instead, Interact helped with the water leak by taking books off shelves and pulling up the carpet. Interact also sponsored a Christmas door decorating contest.

Scholarship, character, leadership, and service are the four qualifications for membership into NHS. Unlike some organizations, NHS does not consider scholarship alone. This quality, which is emphasized by many honor societies, was felt too narrow a basis; the constitution of this national organization recognized four principal objectives. The purpose is to hold these objectives above everything else as goals toward which all should strive. In keeping them before the school, NHS membership hopes to induce others to seek good scholarly habits, to take part in worthy service, and to lead forward in all those things that shall advance the welfare of the school.

The emblem is the keystone and flaming torch. At the base of the keystone, appear the letters C, S, L, and S, which represent the four chief principles of NHS. Just as the keystone forms a base to hold the perfect arch in perpetual stability, so the structure of education must be held firm and true to the purpose of life by the virtues represented in this symbol.

The flaming torch is the emblem of purpose: To bear forward and searching light of truth, to lead that others may follow in the light to keep learning in school, to truth, to lead that others may follow in the light to keep learning in school, to have high ambition for the enduring values of life, and to serve in consideration of others.

This year NHS inducted 25 members to the present 16 members on Nov. 7, 2006, at Centralia High School. NHS members also hosted a blood drive in January at the First Christian Church.

Student Council

With the help of advisers Josh Dorr, Elizabeth Gilman, and Seth Woods, officers lined out themes for Homecoming, Matwarming and Courtwarming and attended summer Student Council camp. In October, Kaylena Albright and Lianna Spurling attended the NEMASC conference, "Three Rings of Leadership," in Fayette. Members planned and coordinated the Homecoming parade, bonfire, flashlight parade, and Mr. Panther and Homecoming Queen coronations. In January they coordinated the Matwarming and Courtwarming coronations, in February they took a trip to the St. Louis city museum, and in March members attended the state meeting.

In May they held a community movie night, showing Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom, hosted a teachers' breakfast, and later spent the day at Six Flags. All year they sold lanyards and concessions, donating proceeds to the Special Olympics, and they organized senior nights for each sport, meeting every Wednesday at 7:45 a.m. Unfortunately, Santa's Workshop was cancelled due to inclement weather, and Mr. Student Body was cancelled due to lack of interest.

Smaller in numbers this year, the CHS band's theme was The Beatles with "Magical Mystery Tour," "Yesterday," and "Hey Jude." The band worked hard through the week of band camp, drank as much band camp lemonade as possible, returning to school with 7:00 a.m. practices in the school parking lot.

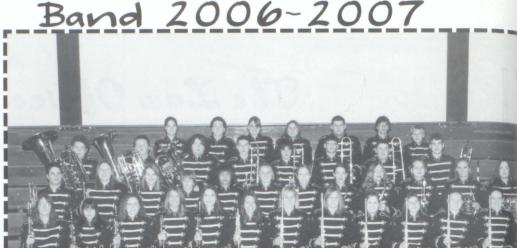

The band traveled to Carrollton and Kahoka, where in Kahoka they placed second in parade and third in field competitions. They also earned the most outstanding field commanders among all other bands.

They also held their second trivia night. Members later traveled to Mexico for contest where they received a I rating overall playing "Amparita Roca" and Choralle and Shaker Dance II."

Concerts, madrigals, contests, and performances were major events in the three choir classes CHS offered this year.

Mixed choir is offered to all CHS students interested in music. It is designed to train singers who want to better their musical abilities in sight-singing and ear training. Music from all periods are addressed and performed at concerts and contests.

Concert choir is a select group of singers in grades 9-12 from auditions of vocal performance. Intermediate levels of sight-singing and ear training are taught. This choir studies music of different cultures and time periods with the purpose of better understanding the history and purpose of music in the world.

Chamber choir is an extremely select number of not more than 30 top singers in grades 10-12 who have demonstrated a high level of vocal performance and interest. Students participate at all performances during the year.

Members of all choirs were required to participate in this year's madrigals.

Music appreciation students study music's roles in our lives and how we express ourselves through music, including listening to and interpreting music of our culture and of other countries.

State music contest went very well for choir this year with chamber and concert choir receiving a 1 rating from the judges with 1 being the best and many individual and small groups doing well with tough judges.

Teaching history courses this year were Josh

Dorr, John Finlay, Mike Hann, and Joe Henke. American history is a survey course from the Civil War to the present. World history students examine the Middle Ages, transition of Europe into the present, the Ages of Revolution, and the geopolitical events of the Modern Era. American government is a study of the struc-

United States history: a survey is an analysis of American history from the age of exploration to the present. Psychology focuses on the study of human behavior, while sociology focuses on the study of human behavior in groups.

Social

Jardyn Angell and Jordan Stearman work on a government in Mr. Henke's class.

Studies

Meagan Kroeger plans her PowerPoint presentation for American history.

Veteran teacher Doris Wood has taught for 32 years and offers four art classes to CHS students. In Art I students design work, study color mixing, drawing, perspective, shading, calligraphy, painting and use many different media. Art II students go beyond the drawing and study past artists and their work, as well as explore different media. They also incorporate study in painting and three dimensional design. Art III students study portraiture, acrylic and oil painting, batiks, human figure drawing, history study, and many other art processes. Mastery of media and methods is expected of students in this upper level art elective. Independent study is for students who have already taken Art I, Art II, and Art III. Students in this class use past skills of the other art classes to do projects every quarter.

This year eight students placed in the CCC Art Show. Lisa Jennings earned an honorable mention in pencil drawing, 1st in ink/marker/scratchboard, and a honorable mention in graphics including lettering, logo, 2D commercial design. Courtney Mitchell won 1st in color pencil, 1st in printmaking, and 2nd in mixed media, batik and fibers. John Bohlmeyer placed 3rd in pastels. Jace Bohlmeyer placed 3rd in ink/marker/scratchboard. Lindsey Bramon placed 1st in opaque painting (oil, acrylic, tempera). Johnna Smith earned an honorable mention in opaque painting (oil, acrylic, tempera). Jessica Cornelison placed 1st in watercolor, transparent media, 2nd in graphics including lettering, logo, 2D commercial design, and 1st in mixed media, batik and fibers. Six science classes were offered at CHS this year. Biology, a class offered to sophomores, focuses on the areas of cell structure and functions, genetics, human biological systems, ecology and characteristics of life.

General chemistry is an introductory course to chemistry covering the topics of scientific method, measurement and the metric system, atomic theory, chemical names and formulas, balanced chemical equations chemical bonding, and gas laws.

Physics is the physical and mathematical principles of the universe. Including motion, velocity, acceleration, masses, forces, astronomy, gravity, energy conservation, light, sound, relativity, electricity, magnetism and nuclear physics.

Advanced biology is a dual credit class offered to junlors and seniors and is designed to reinforce the concepts taught in general biology and build to college level. The focus includes genetic action and expression, evolution, cell anatomy and physiology, energy transformation and basic ecological relationships.

Advanced chemistry focuses on balancing chemical equations, chemical stoichometry, thermochemistry and introductory thermodynamics, reaction rate, chemical equilibrium, and biochemistry.

Anatomy/physiology is a class designed to cover the interaction and structure of human cells, tissues, organs and organ systems. Terminology is a big role and students should expect to learn names and functions of a large number of structures, muscles and bones.

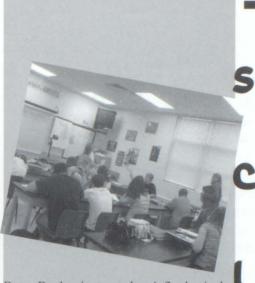

The science department has also added two new clubs this year. Society of Kids Reacting Understanding and BeLieving in Science (SKRUBS) and Tests of Engineering Aptitude in Mathematics and Science (TEAMS). Tonya Schmidt advises both.

Business Department Keeps Students Updated in Business Technology

he business department offers 16 classes to CHS students: keyboarding, introduction to business, computer applications, multi-media applications, business communication, business management, entrepreneurship, business math, graphics arts/desktop publishing business law, Accounting 1, banking and financial services(personal finance), web design(web maintenance), digital communications, electronic business(e-business), and computer programming. With only two teachers in the department, that is a heavy load.

Keyboarding helps students develop and enhance touch skills for entering information on a keyboard and applying skills to produce personal and business documents.

Introduction to business introduces students how a business works in today's society providing a foundation for other business courses.

Computer applications helps students master beginning and advanced skills in the area of word processing, database management, spreadsheet applications, desktop publishing, multimedia, internet usage and integrated software applications.

Multi-media applications students work with multi-media software to develop electronic presentations. They learn to manipulate text, art and graphics, photography, animation, audio, and video for presentations in various media formats.

Business management students develop an understanding of skills and resources needed to develop a business.

They get a gen eral overview of American busi ness.

Entrepreneurship provides students with the fundamental knowedge needed for organizing, developing, and implementing a business concern within the private free enterprise system.

Graphic arts/ desktop publishing develops proficiency in using graphic arts/desktop publishing software to create a variety of business publications such as flyers, brochures, newsletters, etc.

Business law acquaints students with the basic legal principles relevant to their roles as citizens, consumers and employees through a mixture of personal, business and consumer law.

Accounting 1 builds a basic understanding of manual and automated accounting principles, concepts and procedures.

Banking and financial services applies money and economic concepts to the development of personal financial goals and to the preparation of students for careers.

Web design deals with the use of Web programming languages, graphics applications, and other web authoring tools to design, edit, launch and maintain web sites and pages.

Digital communications introduces students to input technologies that serve as alternatives to keying data and formatting documents using the traditional keyboard, voice input system, on-screen handwriting tablets and other technologies as they become available.

Electronic business students address the impact of all electronic processes and their roles in improving aspects of doing online business.

Computer programming focuses on converting problems into detailed plans, writing code into computer language, testing, monitoring, debugging, documents, and maintaining computer programs. Students also design programs for specific uses.

Business communications provides reinforcement of students' basic language arts skills and develops essential competencies for oral and written communications skills and resources needed to manage a business.

Where else can you find the resources and guidance to perform woodworking, welding, drafting, electrical maintenance, and construction blended with Mr. Hight's witty humor? No other place than the industrial technology classes: principles of technology, Woodworking I, advanced woods, and Drafting I.

Principles of technology is a basic class that includes hands on experience for students who want to learn more about industrial technology. It includes fundamental instruction in the area of woodworking, welding, electrical maintenance, and construction.

Woodworking I is an informative class based around the art of woodworking. In this class students learn different techniques, types of wood, machine safety, and uses of wood. They also make clipboards, checker boards, and woodturning projects.

Advanced woods consists of proper care and maintenance of power equipment, wood joints, and other advanced wood working techniques. Expectations are high in this class, and students are expected to turn in superior projects.

Drafting I is a class consisting of drawings, sketches, and charts of subjects used to study the use of graphic language. Students learn about mechanical and architectural drafting.

Stone Received Outstanding Ag Teacher Award

With Centralia being such an agriculturally facilitated town, one can expect a lot of agricultural based classes. This year CHS offered seven agriculture classes: Ag Science I, Ag Science II, ag communications, greenhouse management, natural resources, food science, and ag construction. These courses offer instruction while being co-curricular classes with emphasis on the National FFA Association.

Ag Science I and II are introductory instruction classes, and the material covered is livestock, animal breeding, animal nutrition, farm animal management, agricultural mechanics, plant and crop science, careers, and leadership training through FFA.

Ag communications is a course emphasizing oral and written communications as it applies to the agriculture industry.

Greenhouse management is a course that helps students develop a basic understanding of greenhouse techniques. Students watch demonstrative procedures to learn how to manage their own crops.

Natural resources is a class that helps prepare for the conservation or improvement of natural resources like oil, water, air, fish, and wildlife.

Food science is a course that covers food chemistry and nutrition, food additives, food packaging, food labeling, evaluations of foods, and many other food related activities. Students also plan and cook their own meals.

Ag construction uses all phases of construction techniques. Students develop and construct their own major shop projects.

Vo-ag teacher Scott Stone was the recipient of the 2006 Outstanding Missouri Teacher of the Year. Sponsored by the National Association of Agriculture Teachers, the award is presented to one teacher from each state.

Out of over 300 applicants, sophomore Sierra Angell was one of 32 selected to attend the Missouri Agribusiness Academy. Angell will travel the state this summer working Missouri ag teacher of the year, Mr. Stone assists Neal with ag professionals.

A. The fury within

Violence by insurgents and sects increased in Iraq despite efforts by Iraqi police and troops from the U.S. and other countries. More than 3,000 U.S. troops died in Iraq since March 2003. Iraqi authorities reported almost 17,000 of their countrymen died in that period, although estimates varied greatly. The U.N. estimated more than 1 million Iraqis fled their homes.

B. Iraq War reexamined

The Bush administration revised its Iraq strategy after a spike in sectarian violence, the results of the November elections and the Iraq Study Group report. Donald Rumsfeld stepped down as defense secretary a day after the elections; Robert Gates, a former CIA chief, stepped into the position. And President George W. Bush proposed an increase of more than 20,000 U.S. troops in Iraq.

C. Rising again

Rebuilding along the Gulf Coast continued following the fall 2005 hurricanes Katrina and Rita. In New Orleans, 74 percent of all schools, and 49 percent of public schools, were open as of December, reported The Brookings Institution, a private research group. Another such group, Rand Corp., predicted the city's population by September 2008 would be 56 percent of the pre-Katrina total.

D. Earth burns, quakes

Mother Nature stayed active in the fall, with an earthquake in Hawaii record-setting rains and floods in the northwest U.S., and a record early October snowstorm in Buffalo, N.Y.. Five firefighters were killed in a wildfire in southern California that authorities determined was arson.

E. Winter puts life on hold

Holiday blizzards dumped as much as four feet of snow in parts of Colorado and Kansas. Then record warmth in the northern and eastern U.S. stalled skiing, ice fishing and ice hockey, but brought out golfers and flowers, before a massive ice storm and freezing temperatures gripped Texas northward to Maine. And more than 100 inches of snow fell in upstate New York.

F. Food safety

E. coli bacteria appeared in produce shipped to several states, raising safety concerns. At least 175 people became ill after eating fresh spinach, and two people died. Lettuce was deemed the culprit when people in the Northeast U.S. became ill after eating at Taco Bell.

The U.S. Census Bureau estimated the country grew to 300 million people in October.

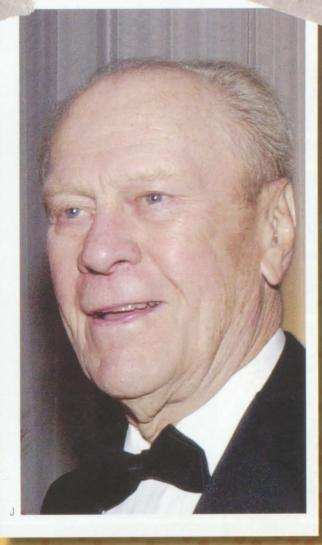

Katie Couric became anchor of the CBS Evening News.

Billionaire Warren Buffet planned to give 85% of his Berkshire Hathaway fortune to philanthropic foundations.

Freezing temperatures in January destroyed 75% of California's citrus crop.

G. Hussein gone

Former Iraq president Saddam Hussein and other officials of his regime were executed for crimes against humanity after being found guilty in the deaths of 143 people from the town of Dujail in 1982. He was hanged in a chamber where his regime carried out death sentence orders.

H. 9/11 five years later

Ceremonies marked the fifth anniversary of the 9/11 terrorist attack. Tributes took place at Ground Zero, where the World Trade Center towers once stood in New York, at the Pentagon and at Shanksville, Pa. Meanwhile, work continued on Freedom Tower, the skyscraper that will replace the World Trade Center towers.

I. A new Congress

Voters in the November midterm elections gave the Democrats a majority in Congress for the first time in a decade. With the victory, Rep. Nancy Pelosi, D-Calif., became the first female speaker of the House. The majority in the Senate was in jeopardy for a time because Sen. Tim Johnson, D-S.D., underwent brain surgery for intracerebral bleeding in December.

J. President Ford dies

Gerald R. Ford Jr., 93, the 38th president, died at home in California in December. Ford was the only president and vice president never to be elected to those offices. He was appointed vice president by President Richard Nixon, and he assumed the presidency when Nixon resigned amid the Watergate scandal in the 1970s. Ford is remembered for pardoning Nixon.

Pope Benedict XVI visited Istanbul's Blue Mosque, only the second papal visit ever to a Muslim place of worship.

K. Communities shattered

Three school shootings in one week in the fall took the lives of nine people. Charles C. Robert IV entered the one-room West Nickel Mines Amish School in Pennsylvania and shot 10 girls, ages 6 to 13, and then himself. Five girls and Roberts died. In Wisconsin, a 15-year-old student at Weston School shot his principal, and in Bailey, Colo., a man shot a 16-year-old girl and himself after a standoff.

L. Ailing leader

Cuban officials claimed President Fidel Castro was slowly recovering from major surgery, and planned to return to power when he was well. Although Castro issued a message on New Year's Day, the 48th anniversary of his revolution, the fact that he had not been seen and few photos were released fueled speculation about the true condition of his health.

M. Ethics charge

Durham County, N.C., prosecutor Michael Nifong was charged with ethics violations in the case of three Duke University lacrosse teammates accused of sexual assault. The North Carolina bar filed the charges against Nifong, claiming he made inappropriate statements to the media about the suspects and DNA evidence.

N. Continent in turmoil

Armed conflict and starvation continued across Africa. Somalia, with the help of Ethiopia, fought to quell Islamic militants. The U.S. made airstrikes against militants thought to be hiding al Qaeda suspects in the 1998 bombings of U.S. embassies in Tanzania and Kenya. In Sudan's Darfur region, the United Nations sought help for starving refugees amid fighting between rebels and government militia.

O. They come; should they go?

Congress, the president and American citizens grappled with the emotional and economic issue of illegal immigration. The debate ranged from sending home all people in the U.S. illegally and fining employers who hire them to amnesty and a guest worker program. President George W. Bush signed a bill to build 700 miles of new fencing along the U.S.-Mexican border.

P. Removing trans fats

Use of trans fats was stopped in some high-profile settings. New York City's health board banned them in restaurants, as did Universal Parks and Resorts and Walt Disney Resorts at their U.S. parks. Trans fats are less expensive to use, but increase bad cholesterol levels, a factor in heart disease.

Q. Helping hand

Oprah Winfrey opened a school for disadvantaged girls in South Africa, named the Oprah Winfrey Leadership Academy. Winfrey spent more than $40 million to build and supply the academy and helped to interview and select the first 152 girls to admit. The school will eventually have 450 girls. Winfrey plans to build a second school for boys and girls in South Africa.

R. Spy thriller

Interpol joined the investigation of the death of former Russian KGB agent Alexander Litvinenko, who died from ingesting radioactive polonium-210, but not before claiming Russian President Vladimir Putin was behind his poisoning. The Kremlin denied the accusation. The investigation strained the relationship between the Russian and British governments

S. U.S. pressures Iran

The United States continued to seek ways to pressure Iran to stop its nuclear program. The United Nations Security Council passed a resolution imposing sanctions on Iran to stop uranium enrichment, which Iran claimed was for electricity generation and not weapons. The U.S. also announced sanctions against Bank Sepah, which provides international banking services in the Middle East.

T. Ask for it by name

Pseudoephedrine is a great decongestant when you have a cold. Unfortunately, it is also used to make methamphetamine, so the government made pharmacies take products such as Sudafed and Drixoral off the shelves. Now adults who want the medicine, must ask for it, show photo identification and sign a logbook.

A. Indy does it

Playing in a soggy downpour in Miami, the Indianapolis Colts won Super Bowl XLI by defeating the Chicago Bears, 29-17. Though the game was plagued by both teams fumbling in the rain, Indy quarterback Peyton Manning was chosen the game's MVP after leading the team to almost 500 yards of offense. It was the first championship for Manning and coach Tony Dungy, both long considered two of the best in the game.

B. Italian delight

Italy won the fourth World Cup title in the nation's history, winning a 5-3 shootout over France in the final match, after the two teams battled to a 1-1 draw in regulation time. The championship game was marred when French star Zinedine Zidane was ejected for a vicious head butt.

C. Gator bait

The Florida Gators chomped on Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game, routing the Buckeyes 41-14. Florida quarterback Chris Leak easily outplayed his Heisman Trophy counterpart, Ohio State's Troy Smith, and Florida became the first school to win a college football and college basketball national title in a 12-month span.

D. Good-bye, Andre

Tennis star Andre Agassi brought his competitive career to an end, retiring after 20 years as a pro because of various back injuries. Considered one of the all-time greats, Agassi was one of only five players in history to win all four Grand Slam titles.

E. Fast friends

Golfer Tiger Woods and tennis star Roger Federer, possibly the two most dominant individual athletes in sports, amused the media by striking up a public friendship. The buddies each had a great year. Federer broke the record for most consecutive weeks ranked number one in the world, and Woods won six tournaments in a row, including the British Open and the PGA Championship.

F. It's in the Cards

After sneaking into the playoffs with only 83 wins, the St. Louis Cardinals stunned the baseball world by advancing to the World Series, and then promptly knocked off the Detroit Tigers in five games. Scrappy shortstop David Eckstein was the unlikely MVP for the unlikely champs.

G. Quite a year

After finishing second in 2003 and 2004, NASCAR driver Jimmie Johnson finally broke through and won his first Nextel Cup championship. Johnson became the first driver to win the Daytona 500, the Brickyard 400 and the Nextel Cup all in the same season.

H. Call it a comeback

Coming off a year where she was plagued by a chronic knee injury and her world ranking plummeted, Serena Williams kicked off 2007 in fine comeback style by winning the Australian Open, knocking off topranked Maria Sharapova in the process.

I. Testing troubles

Two high-profile American athletes dealt with the fallout from failed performance-enhancing drug tests. Cyclist Floyd Landis won the Tour de France, but was then stripped of the title. Sprinter Justin Gatlin, an Olympic Gold medalist and world record holder in the 100 meters, was banned from competition for eight years.

Tony Gwynn and Cal Ripken Jr., were elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in their first try on the ballot.

J. Back to school

New rules dictated that basketball players could not enter the NBA draft until they were at least one year removed from high school. As a result, several highly touted players, such as Ohio State's Greg Oden, planned on spending at least one year playing college basketball before turning pro.

K. A terrible accident

Just days after his team was eliminated from the playoffs, New York Yankees pitcher Cory Lidle was killed when the small plane he was co-piloting accidentally crashed into a New York City apartment building. The crash also killed flight instructor Tyler Strange.

L. What a flip

Motorsports athlete Travis Pastrana stole the show at the X Games by becoming the first competitor to ever land a double backflip during a motorcross competition. Even though the move won him the Freestyle MX gold medal, Pastrana said he had no plans to ever try the stunt again.

M. Coming to America

British soccer star David Beckham surprised many by signing a deal to play for the Los Angeles Galaxy of MLS. Essentially a household name in England and throughout Europe, Beckham immediately provided some credibility for the American league, typically considered a notch below the European leagues.

N. A lady tiger

Mexican golfer Lorena Ochoa was named the AP Female Athlete of the Year after a season in which she won six tournaments on the LPGA tour and earned more than $2.5 million in winnings.

O. Ouch!

Serious youth sports injuries continued to become more common, especially with the continued proliferation of extreme sports like snowboarding and skateboarding. Doctors were concerned that teens who suffered knee ligament tears were becoming more susceptible to early arthritis.

Kentucky Derby winning horse Barbaro was put to sleep after an 8-month ordeal from a broken leg. Legendary Boston Celtics coach Red Auerbach, who led the team to nine titles, died at age 89.

P. Game of the year

Small school Boise State went 12-0 during the college football season, and then became the subject of debate by being included in the BCS. The team provided quite a response, knocking off Oklahoma in an overtime thriller in the Fiesta Bowl, both sending the game into OT and then winning the game on trick plays.

Q. The next great one?

Sidney Crosby of the Pittsburgh Penguins became the youngest player in NHL history to score 100 points in a season during his rookie year in 2006. In 2007, the 19-year old became the youngest player ever voted in as a starter for the NHL All-Star Game.

A. YouTube goes Google

The wildly popular website YouTube, which allows users to exchange video clips, was purchased by internet portal Google for $1.65 billion. The deal got mixed reviews. YouTube benefited from Google's global reach, but users complained when hundreds of copyrighted clips were removed from the site.

B. The latest gadget

Technology innovator Apple jumped into the wireless phone business with its latest product, iPhone. Designed to combine a digital camera, PDA, media player and wireless phone in one device with a touchpad screen, the iPhone cost between $500-600.

C. A reason to hope

For the second straight year, cancer deaths in the U.S. dropped. The totals decreased by 3,014 deaths. Doctors attributed the success to declines in smoking, as well as earlier and more effective treatment of tumors.

D. Game of choice

Sony fired the latest salvo in the video game wars by releasing the PlayStation 3 device to compete with Microsoft's Xbox 360. With models featuring 20GB and 60GB of memory for media storage, Sony plugged the PS3 as much more than just a video game console.

E. Save the seafood

A group of ecologists published a study indicating that if current trends of overfishing and pollution continued, then the seafood industry faced a possible collapse by 2048.

F. A new treatment

The FDA approved a new drug called Gardasil, which claimed to be a vaccine to treat the virus that can cause cervical cancer. Guidelines called for the drug to be administered to girls as young as 11 or 12 before they become sexually active. Some conservative religious groups immediately voiced concern that doing so would promote promiscuity.

G. Lady first

Anousheh Ansari, the co-founder of her own technology company, became the first female space tourist. Ansari accompanied U.S. astronauts and Russian cosmonauts on an eight-day mission to the International Space Station and became the first person to publish a blog from space.

H. Race to the moon and beyond

The U.S., Japan, Russia and China all continued renewed efforts to send manned missions back to the moon for the first time in more than 30 years, and started plotting manned missions to Mars. Scientists guessed that by 2020, both goals might be reached.

I. Future fuels

BMW became the first auto manufacturer to take a hydrogen-powered car into mass production by producing 100 models of the Hydrogen 7, a car powered by pumping hydrogen into a combustion engine and igniting it. Meanwhile, more ethanol fuel refineries continued to open across the country.

J. Think it, move it

Advances in medicine allowed doctors to hone and improve artificial limbs, including "bionic" arms that can be controlled by impulses from the brain. The U.S. military began projects to research the thought-controlled arms for use by wounded soldiers returning home.

A. A shocking end

Steve Irwin, the Australian nature adventurer known worldwide as the "Crocodile Hunter," was tragically killed while shooting underwater footage for one of his popular wildlife shows. Irwin died when a stingray stung him, and the barb pierced his heart.

B. Top of the list

In an annual survey of the highest-paid actresses in Hollywood, Nicole Kidman landed on top for the first time by earning an average of $17 million per movie. Kidman also became one-half of another high-profile entertainment couple, marrying country star and fellow Aussie Keith Urban.

C. Almost a dream

Dreamgirls, a musical loosely based on the rise to fame of Motown legends. The Supremes, actually led all films with eight Oscar nominations. Surprisingly, the movie did not get a nod for Best Picture. However, the music and the individual performances of stars Eddie Murphy and Jennifer Hudson were honored.

D. Ahoy, matey!

The Pirates of the Caribbean movie saga continued, and ruled the box office. The second movie in the series, Dead Man's Chest, was easily the highest grossing movie of 2006, earning more than $420 million. The third, and final, installment was scheduled for release in the summer of 2007.

E. Grammy haul

The Dixie Chicks were big winners at the Grammy Awards, taking home five honors, including Album of the Year, Song of the Year and Record of the Year. It was an unexpected haul for the country trio, after the group drew years of criticism for its stance against the Iraq War.

F. Night switch

ABC moved medical drama Grey's Anatomy from Sunday night to Thursday to go head-to-head against highly rated crime show CSI. Both shows continued to do well. Combined, the two shows attracted more than 40 million viewers on Thursdays.

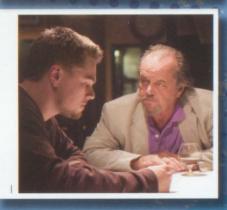

G. Better together

Struggling TV networks WB and UPN merged to form a new channel called The CW. The fledgling new network was filled with several popular shows geared toward the teen audience, such as The Gilmore Girls, Smallville, Veronica Mars and One Tree Hill.

H. Borat in America

No movie made bigger waves than Borat, a comedy about the antics of a politically incorrect journalist from Kazakhstan who visits America. Comedian Sacha Baron Cohen created and played the fictitious title character, and received both praise for his creativity and scorn for his controversial material.

I. Interesting mix

The Academy Awards produced a unique set of Best Picture nominees. The Departed, the winner, was about police corruption; and Letters From Iwo Jima was a World War II movie told from the Japanese perspective. Babel told the story of an American couple encountering tragedy while vacationing in Morocco. The other nominees were the child beauty pageant comedy Little Miss Sunshine and The Queen, a biopic on England's Queen Elizabeth II.

J. More popular than ever

Southern soul crooner Taylor Hicks won the fifth season of American Idol, as the show's popularity continued to climb and attract more viewers. The sixth season premiere in January drew in 37.3 million people.

K. Not so crazy

Gnarls Barkley, a duo combining rapper Cee-Lo and D.J. Danger Mouse, released their first album, St. Elsewhere, and it quickly became a hit. Known for a unique sound and tendency to perform in wild costumes, Gnarls Barkley's first single, "Crazy," became the most purchased song of the year.

L. All grown up

Former boy band star Justin Timberlake continued his maturation by releasing his second solo album, which sold nearly 700,000 copies in the first week. The album also broke the iTunes records for pre-orders and first week sales.

M. Surprising success

Former vice president Al Gore stepped back into the spotlight. To the surprise of many, Gore's documentary about the environment, An Inconvenient Truth, actually sold tickets to the tune of almost $40 million. Gore's book of the same name also stayed on the New York Times bestseller list for several weeks.

N. King of comedy

Funny man Will Ferrell cemented his growing reputation as a box office star with the hit Talladega Nights: The Legend of Ricky Bobby. Ferrell played the lead title role in the fictional biopic of a racecar driver that spoofed the world of NASCAR.

O. Instant hit

Disney's made-for-TV movie High School Musical sold more than one million copies in the first six days it was released on DVD. The film was popular enough that it was made into a stage show, and filming began on the sequal.

A. Perk up

More teens became caffeine consumers. Simmons Research said 31% of U.S. teens, or 7.6 million, drank energy drinks. The energy drink industry grew 80% last year, and mainly targeted males in their teens and 20s with their caffeine and sugar concoctions.

B. Cursive writing outdated

The number of students using cursive handwriting had declined. Fewer elementary schools are teaching it, and more students are printing. Eighty-five percent of students who took the 2006 SAT test for college printed their essay answers.

C. The '80s are back

Long sweaters, leggings, tall boots, wide belts, big black sunglasses and big jewelry – designers took 1980s fashions for women and gave them a twist for the new century. Untucked button shirts over tees, Polo shirts and cargo pants were still mainstays for the guys. And fashion went beyond clothes, with cell phone bling in the form of stickers, faceplates, charms and holders.

D. Feed me

Lunch lines moved faster thanks to technology that let parents keep funds in an account that the student can access. Children at some schools used an account number, while other students use fingerprints to make their purchases. Parents also saw what their children were buying.

E. Get the message

SUP? Text messaging, that's what. Texting via cell phone was cheaper than talking, and was used by students to check in with friends or remind parents to pick them up.
